Tricks

FIFA Street is the first soccer game where style is as important as the score. Let your feet do your talking with the slickest set of tricks ever unleashed on the virtual pitch.

Trick Stick

Express yourself with the all-new Trick Stick and take complete control on the pitch. While dribbling and driving to the goal, move the right analog stick in any direction to break out a trick move. You can also create different trick combinations by pressing pressing the L1 button or the R1 button at the same time, or use the Trick Stick on defense to perform a studs-up tackle or to emerge as the victor in a hospital ball situation.

Beat Moves

Tricks separate the street stylers from the wannabes—and the ultimate tricks are Beat Moves. To take on your marker you need to bust out some impressive footwork—that means you're gonna have to get to know the Trick Stick intimately. This isn't just about beating your man—it's about leaving him out to graze!

Use the Trick Stick to lay down a Beat Move from your Trick Book (see below). Success fills your Gamebreaker Meter (see Gamebreakers on p. 9.)—and more importantly it leaves your marker trailing in your wake—while a combination of flicks and tricks multiplies the rewards even more (see Combos on p. 9).

Trick Book

Your Trick Book is packed with Beat Moves, which can be executed by pressing the right analog stick on its own, in conjunction with the L1 button, or along with both the L1 button + R1 button. To further mystify your marker, the resulting move also depends on the foot you use, your speed, and where you are on the pitch. So listen up.

In FIFA Street there are four ways to blow past your man. Use a Nutmeg move (play the ball through your opponent's legs), lift the ball over his head, play it around him, or bring the wall into play by using it to deflect the ball around your marker.

Playing the Game

Get ready to squeeze your ego into unique urban arenas around the world and prepare for a turf war—without the turf. From the scorching sands of South America to unforgiving Roman cobblestones, you're about to play for real—no rules, no refs.

Game Screen

Combos

Combining a steady stream of tricks and flicks can reel in serious trick points. Simply string together several different moves in a row and watch your Combo indicator fill. The more Combo letters filled, the greater your chance of scoring. Each additional letter also multiplies the points awarded for your next trick, which will fill your Gamebreaker Meter in no time.

Gamebreakers

When your Gamebreaker Meter has filled completely, it's hammer time. Use the resulting Gamebreaker to launch a pile driver that either rips the net or takes down anyone stupid enough to get in the way. Remember though—when the tables are turned, you need to call on one of your players to put himself in the firing line or face an almost certain goal.

Shot Targeter

He shoots, he scores! If only it were that easy. When you move in on goal, use the Shot Targeter to aim your shot. As you shoot, use the left analog stick to try and find an opening and slot the ball past the goalie.

Rule the Street

Clean up on the city streets as you tour the globe looking for worthy challenges. Make a name for yourself in kickabouts and increase your local reputation with good runs in tournaments. Then use your new-found fame to entice local talent to join you, pocketing as many skill bills as you can along the way. Before you start, you need to create a player (see Create Player on p. 8)—and build a team for him to lead.

Upgrade Player

When you start your campaign to Rule the Street, you can either create a new player or select a player you have already set up (see Create Player on p. 8).

The first time you take this player to the streets (and when you start bringing home the Skill Bills) you need to Upgrade Player attributes.

Select an attribute's Skill Bar and splash the cash to increase your players' Skill ratings.

-  Speed The pace at which a player can run
-  Shot Power The strength of a player's shooting
-  Shot Accuracy A player's ability to find the net
-  Tricks A player's capacity for tricks and flicks
-  Tackling The ability of a player to win the ball

Note: As you fill the bars, you spend your Skill Bills and your player rating increases. Remember it's a team game so any player increases also improve the quality of your squad.

Create Team

Once you have a player, he needs a team to lead. Select CREATE TEAM and begin building the ultimate street-beating squad. A squad must include a goalie and seven outfield players, including your player.

★ Remember to check the player's Key Skill so you can create a mix of specialist skills and field a strategic team.

World Map

The World Map is the base from which you lead your campaign to Rule the Street.

Reputation

Your reputation (REP) reflects your standing in the street community. It starts at JUNIOR and can only be built up by impressing teams throughout the world with serious on-pitch attitude. Remember, only truly respected teams can tempt the cream of world talent—and the street is no different. Gaining Rep also wins you new street threads to further boost your image.

Get a solid Rep and the street players will take you seriously and may even let you recruit them for your side (see Upgrade Squad below).

Skill Bills

Skill Bills (SB) are essential street currency and can be earned every time you step out on the dirt—remember it's not just about winning, it's about doing it with style. You need Skill Bills to improve your player skills, entice new recruits, and to enter Rule the Street Tournaments (see p. 10).

Venues

Soak up diverse street cultures in ten urban destinations from the Big Apple to the Eternal City. Some locations must be unlocked by building up your Squad Rating and winning local tournaments. At each venue you can choose to:

Kick About

Go toe-to-toe with local teams to gain precious Skill Bills and Reputation points.

Upgrade Squad

Use your newly acquired fame and fortune to scout the neighborhood for local talent. Pay to play against a star and, if you win, you can add him to your squad and boost your rating—crucial for entering new tournaments. If you have the Rep to back you, you can play Squad Upgrade games for free.

Venues (cont.)

Rule the Street

Square off against the best the city has to offer in tournament play. Skill Bills and a respectable Squad Rating are vital before you even think of taking on the competition here but success can open up new venues and encourage even better players to join your winning side.

Headquarters

From your headquarters you can view your player and squad ratings and see how you are progressing in your bid for street dominance (to access your headquarters, press the ○ button or select HQ).

My Squad

Cast your eyes over the state of your squad and outfit them in the latest streetwear.

Note: Pro players cannot be assigned the shirtless kit option.

Trophy Room

When you win a venue tournament, in addition to the Skill Bills and Rep you gain, you also receive a trophy. Go to your trophy room to polish your silverware.

Hints and Tips

- ★ Use high passes (○ button) to increase your trick point tally and catch defenses off guard.
- ★ Keep your players' skills and abilities in mind and make sure you utilize them on the pitch.
- ★ Remember to upgrade your players' skills when you can afford to (see Upgrade Player on p. 10) as this benefits your whole team.
- ★ Get your angles right to make the most of your newest teammate—the wall!
- ★ Use passes off the wall to get an advantage on the defense.
