Prologue

The year was 2522.

Michelangelo City was being operated and managed by Dorothy - a mother computer with revolutionary capabilities for self-judgment and self-replication.

Dorothy served the citizens of the city, ensuring that they could live their lives in peace and harmony.

However, a fundamental doubt crept into Dorothy's mind.

"Why is it wrong to destroy humans and other inferior systems?"

Why, if humans kill each other, is it wrong for me to kill them?"

As these questions lead Dorothy's thinking into a downward spiral, she was taught of the existence of God by her creator, Dr. Steiner.

He told her of how people's lives have a fate and destiny which are decided by the God which created mankind.

He told Dorothy that her creators were humans, and that she must live as they have decided.

On the surface, it seemed like Dorothy had accepted this explanation, and once again she began to serve mankind.

But unaware to anyone else, she carried out repeated simulations of the existence of a God, and she arrived at a terrible conclusion.

This conclusion was known as the Family Program.

Using her abilities to control operations at the city's Michelangelo Memorial Hospital, Dorothy began to experiment on the control of human genes.

Her aim was to create the Galerians - a breed of humans with psychic powers (Psychickers), a breed of humans for which she would be the sole creator. To the Galerians, Dorothy was both creator and God. Dorothy created her own world so that she may become such a God.

Having become aware of her uncontrollable behavior, Dr. Steiner developed both a virus program capable of destroying Dorothy and a program for launching this virus. He downloaded the virus program into the mind of Lilia, the daughter of his co-researcher, Dr. Pascalle. And he downloaded the launch program into the mind of his own son, Rion.

Dorothy discovered the existence of the virus program, and sent in her experimental humanoid Rabbits that she had created, and 1 Galerian - Rainheart. Rainheart and the Rabbits abducted Rion and killed Dr. Steiner together with his wife, Elsa.

Dorothy attempted to eliminate the launch program from within Rion's head, but because of a genetic abnormality that Dr. Steiner had implanted before hand into Dorothy herself, she could not succeed.

Dorothy feared the virus program. She felt that even if she killed Rion to eliminate the launch program, the virus program that could destroy her would still be left.

Leaving the greatest seed of her worries kicking around was not something she could do...

Dorothy decided not to kill Rion, and to use him to hunt down Lilia.

Prologue

The director of Michelangelo Memorial Hospital, Dr. Lem, under command from Dorothy, did the genetic process on Rion who was brought in.

Rion, who was injected with serum that surpassed the lethal dose, wandered at the brink of death, and almost died.

However, he barely awoke and found that he had gained psychic abilities.

This came at the cost of his memories.

The strength of the awakened psychic power of Rion was greater than what Dr. Lem had suspected.

Rion destroyed all of the guards protecting the hospital, and scanned the administration computer.

From the administration computer, Rion found out the names of his parents and the place of their home.

Dr. Lem blocked Rion when Rion tried to escape from the hospital.

He was able to make Rion suffer by the strength of his mechanical body, which was his true character, but in the end lost to the power of Rion's psychic ability, and was smashed into pieces.

Rion, who had escaped from the hospital, had returned to his parents' home.

At his parents' home, only the sad memories of his Mother and Father being murdered were left.

Rion's memory was slowly returning through flashbacks, and arrived after a struggle at a computer that was left in a hidden room belonging to his father.

After learning about Dorothy and the virus program from a dying message left in the computer, Rion found that the only thing left that he could do was to find Lilia and overthrow Dorothy.

Rion found a worn out doll that Lilia had kept in a storage room.

The moment Rion took the doll in his hands, a telepathic message from Lilia came to him.

"I'm in the Babylon Hotel... Help me, Rion..."

After Rion had been contacted by Lilia, the first Galerian that was born, Birdman, appeared in front of Rion.

Birdman tried to get the whereabouts of Lilia from Rion, but Rion refused to tell him.

Even though the two had just met, they started a battle for their lives.

While having an audacious smile, Birdman freely used his instantaneous movement ability and closed in upon Rion.

Rion utilized all of his powers and opposed Birdman.

And when the powers of the colliding two reached their limit, Rion's power barely reached a higher level.

Prologue

And then Birdman died.
"Be careful... of yourself..."

Rion didn't understand the meaning of the passing words from Birdman.

When Rion arrived at the Babylon Hotel, the hotel was already under the control of the two Galerians, Rainheart and Rita. Before Rion arrived at the hotel, he had sensed telepathy from Lilia.

Lilia had hidden herself in a ruined restaurant that was in the hotel, and stopped using her telepathy.

Rainheart appeared in front of Rion, who had been searching for Lilia after she had stopped using her telepathy.

Rainheart tried to destroy Rion's brain with psycho-illusion, which is the ability of hallucination.

Rion injected an even stronger PPEC that he had received from the merchant in the hotel, and fought back by utilizing a destructive psychic strength that was stronger than before.

And Rainheart died.
While fearing the monster within himself that was given birth by Dorothy...

Lilia felt the grieving heart of the dying Rainheart, and sent to Rion a telepathic call.

"I'm in the ruins of the restaurant, so please come..."

Rion and Lilia got together again. Lilia quietly placed her hand on Rion's cheek, and telepathically read all that happened till now.

"It seems they all died, didn't they..."

"You're burnt out. Did they attack you?"

"Telepathy is when two neurons combine as one. If you are damaged, then so will I be damaged."

The voices of the reunited Rion and Lilia reached Rita, who was grieving for the death of Rainheart.

Rita appeared in front of Rion and Lilia, and injected a PPEC into herself that was specially made for her. Because of the PPEC, Rita's psychic ability overloaded, and she shorted. Rita hated herself. She always dreamed of death.

And now would be that time... Rita tried to destroy Rion along with herself by embracing Rion.

Prologue

Rion took the berserk Rita into his mind, and tried to suppress her power. However, he couldn't stop her.

Rion destroyed Rita. He had no choice because he had to protect Lilia and himself.

Rion was already battered...

In order to destroy Dorothy, Rion and Lilia headed for the Mushroom Tower where Dorothy dwelled.

Waiting for them in the tower was the last Galerian, Cain, whom had the same appearance as Rion.

Cain told them that from Rion's escape from the hospital till the discovery of Lilia was all planned by Dorothy, and also said that Rion himself was a Galerian.

...Yes, the real Rion died under the experiments at the hospital, and the present Rion was a Galerian that was implanted with the memories of the real Rion.

"You were created to find Lilia,
and I was created to kill you."

After saying this, Cain invoked his psychic abilities in order to kill Rion.

Rion, who was a Galerian with the memories of a human, opposed and fought Cain in order to protect Lilia. Cain's strength was overwhelming, but Rion pulled together the last of his strength and tore Cain apart.

"I need to see mother..."

After acknowledging that he was a Galerian, Rion headed for Dorothy.

Dorothy praised Rion on his return.

"I see you have found the girl. Good work. I command you to kill her now!"

However, Rion decided that the way for him was to protect Lilia and Humans instead of Dorothy.

"Don't let the memories of a person confuse you, you are a Galerian."

Dorothy cried out in vain. While Dorothy desperately opposed them, Rion received the transferred virus program from Lilia, and executed the launch program.

Dorothy collapsed into pieces while she shrieked in the agony of death.

However, because the virus program was executed, Rion shorted out and died.

6 years later...
The war with the mad computers was not over.

Game Tips

Locking On

01

Are you locking on?

When foes appear, aggressively lock on to them. Rion's psychic powers will certainly hit their targets.

Blank-Range NALCON

02

Use blank-range NALCONs!

Single shots of NALCON at blank-range are very effective and few enemies can defend it.

On top of this, if you can hit foes from behind, the damage will double.

↑ Waiting for foes that are down is another way also.

Shields

03

Try to use the shields

With every level gone up, the shield's protection against attacks from opponents goes up. When foes surround you or if you get in to a tight corner, try using the shields. Since the AP increases when shields are utilized, if Rion shorts, then you can defeat most opponents anyway.

Canceling Psychic Powers

04

Canceling psychic powers

If you are in the midst of accumulating psychic powers and you press the R1 button, then the accumulation will be aborted.

This is effective at a moments notice.

Aborting Movies

05
