IMMEDIATELY DISCONTINUE use and consult your physician before resuming gameplay if you or your child experience any of the following health problems or symptoms:

RESUME GAMEPLAY ONLY ON APPROVAL OF YOUR PHYSICIAN.

Use and handling of video games to reduce the likelihood of a seizure

Stop using the system immediately if you experience any of the following symptoms: lightheadedness, nausea, or a sensation similar to motion sickness; discomfort or pain in the eyes, ears, hands, arms, or any other part of the body. If the condition persists, consult a doctor.

OVERVIEW

Jurassic: The Hunted is an epic, story-driven first-person shooter set on a dark, mysterious island that connects the modern world with the age of dinosaurs. In Jurassic: The Hunted, you take on the role of Craig Dylan, a weapons and survival expert, hired to protect a researcher sent to study the strange temporal energy of the island and recover whatever is left of the expedition lost on the island over 20 years earlier. Every minute is a fight for survival as Dylan must scavenge weapons, defend barricades, and battle titanic dinosaurs to return to his own time.

THE STORY

On October 5, 1983, an expedition to investigate unexplained phenomenon in the Bermuda Triangle, lead by Dr. James Sayrus, was lost at sea with all hands. Twenty-eight years later, reports of phantom radio transmissions purportedly from the lost Sayrus expedition were intercepted by ships and aircraft passing through the area where his ship was lost.

As a private consultant for Aconite Security, Dylan was hired to escort the daughter of Dr. Sayrus on a search for her father. It was supposed to be a cakewalk – one week of babysitting detail and then nothing to do but count the cash. Of course, no plan's ever perfect and now Dylan's stranded on an island that isn't supposed to exist, surrounded by dinosaurs that aren't supposed to exist, just trying to find a way to get home alive.

JURASSIC THE HUNTED

ENEMIES

As soon as he hits the island, Dylan realizes he's a long way from home. As you explore the island, you're going to come across all sorts of dinosaurs. Here's some examples of some of the more common ones:

Velociraptor

Small, quick, and dangerous, velociraptors tend to fight in packs. They prefer to dart in and out waiting for a good chance to jump and latch on to you.

Deinonychus

These red 'raptors are straight-forward killing machines. Once they know you're around, every red in the area will rush to your location. As with their smaller cousins, these dinos like to jump in to get a hold of their prey. Use this to your advantage when you're trying to fend 'em off.

JURASSIC THE HUNTED

Pteranodon

All over the island, you'll run into these eagle-eyed vultures. Keep a wary eye anytime you see their shadow cross your path – you never know when they'll decide to try giving you a swipe.

WEAPONS

Dylan wasn't the only bit of clutter ejected from flight AS239. All around the island, Dylan will come across weapon crates scattered throughout the jungle. These crates aren't always easy to find, so be prepared to look around as you explore the island. Just remember that Dylan can only carry a limited number of guns at a time. Once you hit his limit, he'll put down a weapon each time you try to pick up a new one.

TIPS AND TRICKS

Adrenaline Burst - Backed into a corner with a half-dozen raptors staring you down? Then it's time to let Dylan's adrenaline kick in so you can take back control of the situation. When your adrenaline is flowing, you're able to move faster, shoot faster, and hit harder. You only have a few seconds of adrenaline burst available to you at a time, so use it wisely. Once it's gone, it takes a while to recharge your reserves.

Shoot 'em in the head - If you want to down a dino, you're going to need to make your shots count. Whenever possible, aim for the vitals!

Ammunition - If you're running out of ammo, try looking around the area. Ammunition crates are sometimes where you wouldn't expect to find them. Look behind trees and around corners to see if there's a stash of ammunition there. When all else fails, remember that you can always use your melee attack to smack the dinos directly.
