Yellow Triangle: The position of the player.

Blue Cross: The location of the next objective.

Combat

When in hand-to-hand combat, holding down the R1 button increases the strength of Tommy's hits.

When reloading you will lose any rounds left in the magazine unless you are using a shotgun.

Vehicles

Obtaining Cars

Ralph will teach you how to steal certain cars. Only after you learn the method for unlocking a specific model will you be able to steal that model on the streets of Lost Heaven. To steal a vehicle, stand next to the driver's door, press the Δ button and wait until the unlocking bar is full. If a vehicle is occupied you will pull the driver from his seat and be able to drive off with his car.

Speed limiter

Speeding will attract the attention of the police so make use of the speed limiter by pressing the L1 button when driving to stick to the speed limit.

Garage

As you progress through the game, newer models of cars will appear on the streets of Lost Heaven. When you complete a mission you will have the option to carry forward the car you are currently driving by saving it in the garage.

Train

If you find yourself without a car you could always jump on a train to get around Lost Heaven.

Police

The police patrol Lost Heaven as they would in any other city, on foot and in patrol cars.

They will fine you for committing minor offenses or arrest you for more serious crimes, using force if necessary.

Ticket icon: The police will stop and fine you.

Handcuffs icon: You are wanted; you can evade the chasing officers on foot or in a vehicle. Keeping out of sight and changing vehicles is the best way to throw them off your tracks.

Gun icon: The police will use force, if necessary, to bring you in.

Racing Freeride

Select this option to race either single races or in a championship around various locations in Lost Heaven. As you progress through the main game more locations and vehicles will become available.

Select Free Ride to drive freely around Lost Heaven and the surrounding countryside. You can collect money working as a taxi driver or by fighting with gangsters and destroying cars. With the money you can pay to heal yourself at the city hospital or repair your car at Bertone's.

At Salieri's Bar

Most of the missions in the game will begin at the Salieri Bar. The bar serves as a base for Salieri family meetings and where the Don, or his consiglieri Frank, set you your tasks. After you have been briefed you will generally be required to collect equipment for the mission. Vincenzo works in a small workshop next to the yard and he can provide you with weapons. Ralph, the family's car mechanic, works in the yard itself and can provide you with vehicles for your missions.

Most missions end when you return to Salieri's.

WANTED

Tommy Angelo

Tom's the main character in the game. Originally a cab driver, but due to a combination of unpleasant circumstances he is forced to join the Mafia. Tom is all in all a nice guy, but a tough childhood and life in the 1930s have changed his moral values a little. Thus, he's capable of doing things that a normal person wouldn't understand, but his conscience sometimes haunts him.

Norman

Norman's the typical example of a detective brought up through the school of hard knocks. He's a scruffy, tough guy, who acts like he hates everybody around him. Tom tells him his story, but doesn't get much sympathy.

Don Salieri

The boss of the family that Tommy works for. He's a guy who's lived through a lot and doesn't get excited too easily. He's typical of a Mafioso who hasn't built up his position just for money and doesn't always kill to get what he wants. He's friendly, but when he gets tough he can become dangerous. Sometimes business is more important than friendship to him.

Paulie

Tom's sidekick, an energetic and hot-tempered guy, who sometimes behaves completely unexpectedly. If he likes somebody he is the most loyal friend you could have, someone you can always rely on; if he doesn't cause you problems that is. Tom and him are the greatest of friends and often work and have fun together.

Sam

Sam's another associate of Tom's. On first sight, he just looks like an average guy with a friendly smile. He's big and sometimes clumsy. He's also shy and doesn't talk a lot. He often works with Tom and Paulie and they are good friends.

Frank

Frank is Don Salieri's best friend, associate and advisor. His main concern is family finance and the legal side of business. He is well suited to this. At first sight he doesn't seem to belong among these criminals, as he is a very quiet and inconspicuous nice guy. He does his work mainly because of an attachment to Don Salieri, as well as their mutual past. They grew up together in a poor quarter and thanks to the Don he gained most of what he has, so he can't just turn his back on him. If he'd grown up in any other place he would certainly be a successful lawyer or businessman.

Vincenzo

He has worked for the family for a long time and it means everything to him. It's strange that such a good guy like Vincenzo found his greatest love in guns, but that's why he takes care of Salieri's arsenal of weapons and selects the best equipment for a mission.

Ralph

Ralph is excellent when it comes to dealing with vehicles. He can take apart, repair, improve and then rebuild whatever he gets his hands on. His world revolves around anything on four wheels, and he knows little about anything else. That's why he'll only talk about vehicles, though even conversations about vehicles aren't easy for him.

Morello

Morello is Salieri's main adversary. Where Salieri opts for negotiation, Morello uses an army of men with Thompsons. Where Salieri punishes treachery, Morello indiscriminately shows his might. Because of this he has a big influence in the city, which he is trying to extend into Salieri family territory. He is greatly helped by his brother Sergio. However, he ultimately destroys everything he's involved in through his overly brutal behavior.

Lucas Bertone

Lucas is a pleasant Italian of middle age, a car mechanic for the rich. He is very big-hearted even though, in view of the services he provides to the Mafia, he is no saint.

NOTE: Although not part of the Salieri family it's often worth visiting Lucas when you have spare time as unlike Ralph, Lucas's work means that he has access to some of the more luxurious and exotic cars in the city.
