DUALSHOCK2 ANALOG CONTROLLER CONFIGURATIONS

An important new feature to MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL[®] 2K7 is the 2K Tips dynamic help system. The 2K Tips will offer in-depth descriptions of the game mechanics in appropriate situations by showing little tips that explain how things work. From the basic (how to catch a pop fly) to the situational (how to take advantage of a payoff pitch), these tips are incredibly helpful and allow you to get the most from your game.

When a 2K Tips screen appears, gameplay pauses, and you'll be given a few options:

- Press the L1 button or the R1 button to cycle through each page of the tip. Typically, the first page will offer a general feature description, and the following pages will show you how and why to use the feature.
- Press the □ button to disable the current tip being shown. Tips will not repeat within the same game, however if you do not disable the current tip then you will probably see it again in a future game.
- Press the ○ button to disable all tips (turning the 2K Tips feature off entirely)
- Press the ✕ button to simply dismiss the tip when you're done reading it.

Saving: VIP Profiles vs. Game Modes vs. Settings vs. Rosters...

It's important to note that Major League Baseball 2K7 has multiple SAVE TYPES. Saving one type of file will not save another type. So, for example, saving your VIP Profile while in Franchise mode WILL NOT also save your Franchise game. The saves can generally be divided up as follows:

Game Modes - Saves for Franchise, GM Career, Season, or Tournament. In order to save your progress within one of these game modes, you MUST make a save for the specific game mode. For example, to save a Franchise, you must actually select "Save" from the "My 2K7" menu within Franchise mode.

Profiles - Save for VIP Profiles. Saving this will save everything that is tied to your profile - overall statistics, personal bests, unlockables, etc.

Settings - A Settings save will save all of your modified options, such as MLB rules, Presentation style, etc.

Rosters - Saving a Rosters file will save any rosters that you have modified from the front end.

To actually perform a save, select My 2K7 from any menu out of gameplay and then select Save.

Play Ball! Lets you jump right into a game between the teams of your choice.

In addition, your catcher will intelligently suggest pitches and locations that the batter struggles against in any and all situations. Listen to your catcher. When you buy a pitcher's Inside Edge report, you'll gain access to his pitch frequency and locational tendencies in all situations. This helps give you an idea where and what a pitcher is likely to throw next!

PLAY BALL! IN DEPTH GAMEPLAY

Pitching - Selecting a Pitch and Pitch Location

Each pitcher comes equipped with his real-life assortment of pitches. First, it's a good idea to aim your pitch using the left analog stick to manipulate the pitch cursor. By default, the pitch cursor indicates the point at which the pitch will break, not the final pitch location. Once you have your pitch cursor lined up, selecting a pitch will initiate the pitcher's windup. To select a pitch, press the corresponding button of the desired pitch. Once you initiate a pitch by pressing and holding any of the relevant pitch buttons (shown on screen), you will see brackets radiate from your breakpoint, and an arrow rotating around your breakpoint cursor.

The brackets radiating out from the center of your target indicates your pitching effort as you put extra effort on a pitch. The more you "power-up" a pitch, by holding the corresponding pitch button, the more effectiveness your pitch will have. More effort means that fastballs will go faster, your changeups will go slower, your curveballs will curve more and so on. Beware: the more effectiveness you put on a pitch, the harder it will be to locate it, so don't overdo it.

The revolving arrow tells you which way a pitch will move from your breakpoint, and how effort will affect your pitch. For example, when powering up a curveball, you will see the arrow graphic progressively rotate at a faster speed to show that powering up the curveball makes it break more. The faster the arrow's rotation, the more your final pitch location will end further away from your set breakpoint, so keep that in mind when setting your breakpoint. If you ever need help knowing which direction a pitch will break, press the R1 button to view this information.

Pitching - Catcher Movement

Using the right analog stick you can now change the position of your catcher before a pitch is made. By moving the right analog stick in any direction, your catcher will reset to that position. To have your catcher reset to the middle of the strike zone (effectively shaking off his location suggestion), press R3. While not necessary to manually move your catcher most of the time, catcher movement is of great importance during "Payoff Pitch" situations. Payoff Pitch situations are discussed in greater length in the next section.

Coach's Tip - Payoff Pitches

Throughout the course of the game, your pitcher will be given the chance to make a "Payoff Pitch." "Payoff Pitches" are pitches you can choose to attempt in big game situations. Making a successful Payoff Pitch allows you to increase a pitcher's pitch type rating while failure can result in a ratings drop. Whenever you have 2 strikes on a batter or are in any "Pitching Jam," "Clutch-at bat," or "Showdown" scenario, you'll see a yellow "Payoff Pitch" icon appear near the score at the top of the screen. Looking out towards your catcher, you'll also see a rectangular "target" icon appear briefly onscreen. If you can get your pitch to pass through this zone your pitch will receive a ratings boost. Note that your pitch rating can vary in how much it increases if you do this correctly. To get the highest ratings boost, throw the catcher's suggested pitch and throw it with maximum effort. Essentially, the greater the difficulty, the more you'll be rewarded as curveballs are harder to place than fastballs. However, note that pitch ratings CAN decrease if you miss the targeted zone. If you miss the targeted zone, your pitch rating will drop by a point. Your catcher will always suggest a location to you whether you have the Inside Edge on a batter or not (Inside Edge makes him suggest intelligently). If you don't like your catcher's suggested location, you can manually move him around using the right analog stick. Lastly, if you don't wish to make a Payoff Pitch when the situation arises, you can deactivate this opportunity (possibly keeping you from having your pitch ratings drop if you're not feeling confident) by pressing L3.

Defense - Keeping an Eye on Baserunners

Smart pitchers know that it's in their best interest to keep baserunners honest when they're aboard. To try a pickoff move, press and hold the L1 button, and press the button corresponding to the base you'd like to throw. Depending on whether a base is being covered and the size of the lead, you may pickoff the baserunner.

Press and hold the L1 button + press the  button - Pick off throw 1st base

Press and hold the L1 button + press the  button - Pick off throw 2nd base

Press and hold the L1 button + press the  button - Pick off throw 3rd base

If you suspect that a baserunner could very well be on the move during your next pitch, it might be a good time to call for the ol' pitchout. To do so, press and hold the R1 button and press the L3 button. This will throw wide of the batter (an intentional ball) but will also get your catcher up and ready to throw to any base, drastically improving your chances at catching a runner stealing.

Coach's Tip - Pinpoint Pickoff Throws

You now have the option of fine-tuning your pickoff throws to bases. When you attempt to pick off a runner, you can modify your throw by moving the left analog stick. If you hold it up, it will result in a high throw, which comes with a low degree of risk but a low chance of picking off the runner. Pressing down will make the player throw low, which has a higher probability of picking off runners but comes at a greater risk. Use these advanced controls to make sure you make that crucial play at the plate.

Defense - Fielding

Once the ball is put into play, you will automatically be given control of the player that's closest to the ball and is best able to make the play. This player will be set apart from the others by having a circular, gray shaded icon underneath him to let you know that he's the fielder you are currently controlling. Move the left analog stick to run toward the ball and make the play. If you need to switch fielders for any reason, press the L1 button and you will switch to the second closest player. To use a speed burst press and hold the R1 button. During a speed burst the player's boost bar will deplete.

- button - Throw to 1st base
- △ button - Throw to 2nd base
- button - Throw to 3rd base
- × button - Throw to home plate

It's important to remember that when you throw the ball to any of the bases from the outfield that you can cut off the throw and redirect it to the base of your liking. Press one of the aforementioned buttons to initiate the throw. Then, while the ball is in the air, press and hold the L1 button to have your cutoff man cut the throw off. From here you can redirect your throw by throwing it to another base of your choice.

Offense - Hitting

Hitting - Swing Stick

In this mode, you will move the right analog stick back when you want the batter to start their "step" and then release the right analog stick to swing. For an attempt at a power swing, move up on the right analog stick instead of just releasing. To check swing, immediately press the R1 button after releasing. Timing is critical, so the best time to start your step is when the pitcher is about to release his pitch.

Coach's Tip - Influence Your Hit

Hitting - Classic Control

In this hitting style, all the action is controlled by the X button. Press it to swing at the correct time and you will make contact. To help influence fly balls, hold down on the left analog stick when swinging with the X button. To help influence ground balls, hold down on the left analog stick when swinging with the X button. Line drives happen when the user keeps the left analog stick in the neutral position when swinging with the X button. The best results occur when you try to hit 'with the pitch', so try to adapt on the fly.

Coach's Tip -Positioning at the Plate

New to this year's game is the ability to switch what side of the plate your batter is on at the touch of the button. Press the R2 button while at the plate, and your batter will change sides. This will have a negative effect on the batter, especially if they are not a switch hitter. You can also move the right analog stick to move your batter closer or further away from the plate.

Hitting - The Bunt

Another hitting technique is the bunt. To have your batter square up for a sacrifice bunt, press and hold the  button before the pitcher begins his delivery to the plate.

After the pitch has been thrown, you will still have to aim with the left analog stick. If you do not feel that the pitch is right for you, release the  button before the pitch reaches the plate. If you would rather attempt to bunt for a base hit, after the pitch has been thrown, press and hold the  button while aiming with the left analog stick, and your hitter will drag bunt. Press the L1 or R1 buttons to control the direction of the bunt.

Using Swing Stick Hitting, bunts can be performed by holding the right analog stick in the up position (the triangle button is used in "Classic" hitting). To have your batter square up for a sacrifice bunt, hold the right analog stick up before the pitcher begins his delivery. From here you can move your bat up or down (to better improve your odds of making contact) by moving the left analog stick up or down. You can also attempt to control which direction your bunt will travel by using the L1 and R1 buttons. Note that better bunters will have an easier time placing their bunts than bad bunters. If you wish to abort this bunt stance, simply stop holding the right analog stick in the up position and let it return to the neutral position. To make a bunt with the intention of getting a base hit, wait until the pitch is in flight before holding up on the right analog stick. Such a tactic can catch unsuspecting defenders off guard.

Coach's Tip - Batter's Eye

While at the plate, you can increase your chances of success by wisely using the "Batter's Eye." With the Batter's Eye, you can attempt to make a guess on where a pitch is coming while you are at bat. If you move the left analog stick in a given area when a pitch is made you will make a guess on that pitch's location. If you are correct, the pitch location will be revealed: a red icon shows that the ball is in the strike zone, and a blue icon shows that the ball is not in the strike zone. Note that a "spotted" pitch will also result in a slight power boost for your batter. The Batter's Eye will change in size depending on the batter, the pitcher, and the current performance of the batter. If a guy is constantly striking out, they will have a small Batter's Eye. If a guy is on fire, they will have a larger Batter's Eye. By default, the batter's eye is hidden from view. To bring the current batter's "eye" into view, press L3 any time to have it appear. Note that if you would like to have the eye appear on screen at all times, you can change the "Batter's Eye" option under "Control Settings" in the options menu.

Be aware that by default the Batter's Eye will always start out in the middle of the strike zone at the outset of every pitch. As the batter, you'll want to HOLD the left stick in the area of the strike zone you wish to protect. Your eye location becomes "locked in" once the pitcher starts his windup.

Offense - Baserunning

Getting a grasp on the basics of baserunning is essential if you hope to have any success in MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL® 2K7. You can take full control of the baserunners using the BaseBurner control scheme.

The basic controls of baserunning are straightforward. To retreat all runners, press the R1 button. To advance all runners, press the L1 button. This will cause all runners to attempt to reach the next base. Some situations however, will require you to advance an individual baserunner. For example, if there is a base hit to right field with a man on first, that man on first will probably be able to make it to third but the hitter will not be able to make it to second. In this scenario you will need to select a specific runner (in this case, the lead runner) to advance. Each runner on base will have a window that shows that runner in the base path and a button icon that corresponds to that specific runner.

If you want to advance a specific runner, in this case the lead runner, press the button that corresponds to him then press the left directional button to make him advance. A number will appear in the window that corresponds to the base he is cued to advance. Press the left directional button multiple times to cue up additional bases that the baserunner will attempt to take. If you need him to retreat for any reason, select the baserunner using his corresponding button and press the right directional button. This will both lower the amount of bases the runner will try for and allow the runner to retreat. If you are trying to retreat the runner, always make sure you press the right directional button enough times to remove any cued up additional bases.

While you are at bat with any hitter, you can order your baserunners to increase his lead at the bag in an effort to get a better jump. You can only move baserunners back and forth while the pitcher still has the ball, but beware of pickoffs. From the normal (or default) lead position, you'll have the ability to extend the runner's lead by one or two extra steps. To do so, press the L1 button once for each extra step you'd like the runners to take. Consequently, press the R1 button to move the runners back a step.

Offense - Stealing

Sometimes, you steal because it strategically benefits you to pit your fastest baserunner against a mediocre catcher. Other times, you want to steal just to gun it against your friend for taunting rights. In either event, the basic base stealing commands are straightforward. When you have baserunners on any of the bases, prior to the pitch, press the X button and the left analog stick in the direction of the base you'd like to steal.

left analog stick DOWN + the □ button - Cue up steal of Home base

Pressing the R1 button will retreat the runner to his previous base as normal.

Offense - BaseBurner

Imagine being in the runner's shoes as he peers nervously at the pitcher while inching up the baseline, trying to gain as much ground as possible before he takes off to steal a base. In MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL® 2K7, you can BE the baserunner and take complete control of this action in BaseBurner mode.

To enter BaseBurner Mode, while there is a man on base, press the ○ button to cycle to the runner you want to take control of. Once you have a runner selected you will control that runner for the duration of the play. The control scheme is as follows:

R1 button - Steal

L1 button - Get Back

right analog stick - Directional sliding directional buttons - Issue batter commands

Defense - Advanced Gameplay

A key component of great management is knowing where to position your fielders on any given play. As a batter stands at the plate, you can adjust your defensive setup by pressing the L2 button. This will bring you to a menu where you can track many different things, including fielder positioning.

Infield

Normal: The default infield position. Normal is a balanced setup, good for many scenarios, but never the optimal choice if you can tip the odds in your favor.

Fielders In: Your fielders will shift closer to home plate. Use this formation when you want to cut down a runner at the plate.

Fielders Back: Your fielders will play deep to guard against hard hit grounders.

Fielders Left: Shift your fielders to cut down the batting average of pull-hitting righties.

Fielders Right: Shift your fielders to cut down the batting average of pull-hitting lefties.

Double Play: The shortstop and second baseman cheat toward the middle so they'll be in better position to turn two.

Guard Lines: Your first and third baseman hug the foul lines.

Guard Bunt: Your first and third baseman are brought a few steps closer to guard against the bunt.

Outfield

Normal: The default outfield position. Like a Normal Infield setup, good for many scenarios, but not if you'll want to cater your defense for the batter.

Shallow: Bring your outfielders in against a poor hitter, or give them a better shot at a play at the plate in the late innings of a game.

Deep: Against power hitters, use this formation.

Shallow Right: Pulls your outfielders in and to the right.

Coach's Tip - Inside Edge Defensive Shifts

Whenever a new batter comes up, your defense will default to playing a shift it deems most appropriate for the given situation (double play depth, protect the plate, etc.). However, if you own a batter's Inside Edge scouting report and he shows strong tendencies to hit the ball to a certain section of the field, you'll notice that your defense will automatically and intelligently shift to counter this! For example, if a right-handed batter is known to pull a lot of hits over to the right side of the field, you might see BOTH your infield and outfield shading him over to that side of the field to decrease his chances of successfully getting a base hit.

Advanced Controls - Arguing Calls

Stand up for your team and challenge close calls when they count the most. Argued calls such as safe/out arguments, catch/no catch arguments, beamed batters, and more can cause some ruckus in the dugout. When the opportunity comes up you can press the  button start an argument. You then have the ability to raise the intensity of your argument by pressing the  button repeatedly. The more you can raise the intensity of the argument without getting tossed, the higher your team's attribute boost you'll receive if you can get through the argument without getting ejected. Make sure to keep your meter out of the red "ejection" zones or you might get ejected and lose the argument. By getting your manager tossed from the game you will no longer be able to make substitutions as your assistant coaches will now control all managerial decisions for your team. Note that when the opposing manager is arguing a call, YOU play the role of the umpire and have the opportunity to eject the opposing manager from the game. Whenever you see the "eject" button light up, quickly press it before it dims again to toss the manager from the game!

Note: If you frequently experience difficulty joining a MLB® 2K7 online game and are using an Internet sharing device (e.g. broadband router or firewall) you may need to enable Port Forwarding (sometimes called Virtual Server) on the device. Please refer to the manual that came with your Internet sharing device for specific setup instructions. You will need to forward UDP port 3658 to the IP address assigned to your PlayStation®2 console. This may require changing Your Network Configuration file from an "Auto" IP address (DHCP) to a "Manual" IP address. MLB® 2K7 includes a Network Configuration GUI for setting up and modifying these files. If you continue to experience difficulty joining online games, try bypassing your Internet sharing device by connecting your PlayStation®2 console directly to your DSL, modem, or cable modem. In this case, you may need to create a new Your Network Configuration file before your PlayStation®2 console will connect to the Internet. 2K Games Videogames reserves the right to discontinue online service for this title with 30 days notice. This game is presented in Dolby Pro Logic II. Connect your game console to a sound system with Dolby Pro Logic, Dolby Pro Logic II, or Dolby Pro Logic IIx decoding to experience the excitement of surround sound. You may also need to select "Dolby Pro Logic II" from the audio options menu of the game.
