PLAYING A GAME

COIN TOSS

Once you take the field, a coin toss determines which team will kick and which will receive. The coin toss is called in the air by the visiting team. The team who loses the toss chooses which goal they wish to defend.

KICK OFF

You can aim your kick by moving the directional buttons/left analog stick ←, →, ↑ or ↓. Kick power is determined by when you press the X button in relation to where the power meter is at the time. Depending on mode of play, some or all of the following elements will be represented by the kick meter:

Ring Red zone: strength of kick or throw.

Ring Blue zone: accuracy of kick or throw.

Wind direction arrow: indicator of any wind.

Wind speed: indicator of how hard any wind is blowing.

Follow the same procedure for punts, field goals and extra points.

To kick a ball:

- Left analog stick to determine the intended direction and trajectory of the kick.
- The X button will activate the Ring. A carat will rotate through the Ring Red zone and then through the Ring Blue zone. Press the X button in the Ring Red zone to set the strength of the kick and press the X button again in the Ring Blue zone to set the accuracy of the kick.

The settings will then be executed. Note that this meter is used throughout the game including the QB Challenge listed below. The instructions for throwing work the same way.

CALLING PLAYS

The play call screen has five main areas. At the upper left is the defensive play select box. The window below that displays sideline activities. At the bottom is the offensive play select box. In the center is the main play window, which shows the currently highlighted plays for both offense and defense, including routes for receivers and the receiver Pass Tags (buttons). The game status area at the bottom of the screen displays the current game situation (score, down, yards to go, time remaining, etc.).

Pass Tags displayed in the main play window correspond with the buttons the quarterback will use to throw passes. Receivers or backs will be marked by the X button, △ button, ○ button, ■ button, or R1 button. See page 11 for more information about passing.

TO CALL A PLAY

Offense has to make two selections: Formation and then a Play.

Defense has to make three selections: Formation, Deep Zone Coverage and then a Play.

- ↑ or ↓ on the directional buttons/left analog stick to scroll through the list of available options (note that more than four options and as few as one option may be available at any time). The highlighted option will be displayed on the main play window.
- X button, ○ button, or ■ button to select the list option next to that symbol in the list (to prevent your opponent from seeing your selection).
- △ button will back the option list to the previous list.

Once both sides have selected plays, the players will break their huddle and play will begin.

CONTROLLING PLAYERS

Single user on offense controls only the player with the ball (cannot switch).

Single user on defense, multiple users on defense, and users 2-4 on offense can cycle through eligible players with the ○ button and the × button.

PASSING

The passing system allows you to control both how hard a pass is thrown and exactly where it's thrown. This allows the quarterback to respond to pass coverage dynamically. In the main play window during play selection, all eligible receivers will have corresponding Pass Tags (see page 10) that designate which button a quarterback will need to press to throw a pass to that receiver.

- Tapping the × button, △ button, ○ button, □ button, or the R1 button will lob the ball to that receiver.
- Holding the × button, △ button, ○ button, □ button, or the R1 button will bullet pass the ball to that receiver.
- Holding the L2 button + hitting any receiver button will pumpfake toward that receiver.

The CPU will control a non-user controlled player until the ball is caught. While the ball is in the air, pressing the ○ button will select the intended receiver.

AUDIBLES

The Audibles function allows you to assign or reassign offensive and defensive hot keys. These settings can be used In-Game to respond to changes in the game's situation. This screen resembles the Play Call screen and functions similarly. There will be four offensive audible slots and four defensive audible slots, where the game status window normally is. Available defensive plays will be displayed in the upper left corner and available offensive plays will be displayed in the lower left corner.

- ↑ or ↓ and ← or → on the directional buttons/left analog stick to highlight which audible slot to modify.
- × button to select the highlighted audible.
- ↑ or ↓ on the directional buttons/left analog stick to scroll through play selection.
- × button to select the highlighted play for the highlighted audible slot.

- △ button to exit the Audibles screen and return to the Pause Menu.

To use Audibles in play, tap the ■ button to display the Audibles list and then tap the appropriate button to move players to a different formation.

QUARTERBACK CHALLENGE

In the Quarterback Challenge, eight members of the Quarterback Club compete to see who has the top quarterback skills. The winning QB gets $45,000, and the winner of each event gets $20,000, making the max you can win $125,000. Players can share a single controller or use up to four controllers using the Multi tap.

QUARTERBACK SELECTION

First, the quarterbacks that will participate in the challenge must be selected (players must select different QBs).

At the QB select screen, you'll see the quarterback's name, personal stats, and ratings in six categories:

- | | |
|---------------------|--|
| Overall | Relative rating of all stats combined. |
| Speed | Overall quickness. |
| Agility | Rates how nimble a QB is. |
| Acceleration | Rates how fast a player can get in motion. |
| Accuracy | Rates how accurately he throws. |
| Arm Strength | Rates how far and fast he can throw. |

- ← or → on the directional buttons/left analog stick to cycle through quarterbacks alphabetically.
- R1 button toggles hat options
- R2 button toggles sunglasses options
- L1 button toggles shorts and shoes options

- L2 button randomizes appearance options

18

- ⊗ button accepts the currently selected quarterback into the Challenge.

- △ button removes the last selected quarterback from the Challenge.

Continue selecting QBs until all eight slots are filled. If less than eight QBs are selected, pressing the START button will randomly fill in the extra slots.

QB CONTROL SELECT

Next, select which quarterback(s) each controller will control. Press ← or → directional button/left analog stick to move the highlight, then press the ⊗ button to select or deselect a player or press the △ button to return to Quarter Back Selection. Any QBs not assigned to a controller will be controlled by the CPU. Press the START button to begin challenge play.

PLAYING A CHALLENGE

There are four challenges. If you like, you can press the ⊗ button to skip the prologue for each event and to skip past any CPU controlled players. At the end of each event, a results screen shows the relative rankings of each quarterback for the event and then the overall Challenge standings.

Speed and Mobility

The first test is Speed and Mobility. In this challenge, the object is to quickly move through the course and throw at the target. The QB picks up the ball, then must maneuver through various obstacles (duck under a bar, dodge defender cutouts, and jump over a hurdle), then throw at a target. When the official blows the whistle, press the ⊗ button to start the timer.

- Directional buttons/left analog stick to maneuver the course.
- ⊗ button to clear the obstacles.

Once the player jumps the hurdle, an aiming icon will appear.

- Directional buttons/left analog stick to aim at the target.
- ⊗ button to throw.

There are time penalties for failing to clear bars, for knocking down cones, and for missing the target. There are time bonuses for hitting closer to the center of the target. There is also a time penalty for missing the target completely. Players are ranked by their total adjusted time. After the preliminary standings are displayed, the top two finishers will have a run-off.

Accuracy Event

In the Accuracy Event, there are three ball stations set up across the field. The first two stations have three footballs and the last station has one. When the official blows the whistle, a timer will start and the player will automatically run to the first station and pick up the first football.

- Directional buttons/left analog stick to aim at the target
- X button to throw.

The player will automatically move to retrieve each new football once a pass has hit a target or the ground. More points are awarded for hitting closer to the center of each target. Players are ranked by the total points accumulated and time used to complete all throws.

Long Distance Throw

Who's got what it takes to complete the long bomb? Find out in the Long Distance Throw. There are two rounds in this event with the best throw of the two being kept. When the official blows the whistle, the player will automatically drop back from the foul line.

- Directional buttons/left analog stick to move within the throwing area.
- X button will activate the throw Ring, which functions like the kick meter (described on page 9). A carat will rotate through the Ring Red zone and then through the Ring Blue zone. Press the X button in the Ring Red zone to set the strength of the throw and press the X button again in the Ring Blue zone to set the accuracy of the throw.

The throw will then be executed. Throws over 50 yards must remain within a 10-yard wide landing area. Throwing a ball outside the landing area or stepping out of the throwing area will result in a fault. Players are ranked by their longest throw. Points are awarded only for throws over 50 yards.

Read and Recognition

For a quarterback, the ability to read a defense and make a good decision regarding receivers can be the difference between post-season play and watching the playoffs from the couch. In this challenge, each player has four attempts to connect with one of several targets crisscrossing the field at once. On each attempt, two to four of the targets will display pass tags (described on page 10) and a yellow flag simulating eligible receivers. When the official blows the whistle, the player will automatically pick up the ball from the ball station and a 6 second timer will start counting down.

- Directional buttons/left analog stick to scan the field for pass tags.
