MAIN MENU

CAMPAIGN (1-2 Players)

Destroy the game's cities in an effort to locate and free hidden monsters created by the Scum Labs Corporation.

Each city is comprised of 8-10 blocks. During the final block of each city, you will encounter Dr. Vector - piloting one of his ingenious anti-monster vehicles. It is not necessary to defeat Dr. Vector before you demolish the city, but you should probably do it anyway. If Dr. Vector prevents you from leveling the city for 10 minutes, you will lose a life.

When all the lives are exhausted, the game is over for both players. The city block must be completely destroyed before you're allowed to proceed to the next block. You have a limited amount of time to destroy each block before planes bomb the city and destroy it.

You can receive Speed Bonus points for finishing a level quickly. All of the blocks have special bonus challenge conditions, such as smashing a certain amount of objects or eating a certain amount of humans.

When a city is defeated, the city score is tallied.

Campaign mode games can be saved to the memory card (8MB) (for PlayStation®2).

MAIN MENU

KING OF THE CITY

Two monsters compete to conquer a single city. Players compete to cause the most destruction to each city block. This game can be played with two human controlled monsters or one human controlled monster versus one CPU controlled monster.

After each block is destroyed, scores are compared, and the monster with the highest score is the winner of that round.

Monster-vs-Monster attacks can occur, since players will be competing for points. After selecting the 2 Player option, press the directional buttons  $\uparrow$  or  $\downarrow$  to toggle the Human and Computer player option.

KING OF THE WORLD

This is a challenge of multiple "King of the City" rounds. Each city is played once. When a player has been declared king of more than half of the available cities, they're declared "King of the World."

After selecting the 2 Player option, press the directional buttons  $\uparrow$  or  $\downarrow$  to toggle the Human and Computer player option.

TIMED RUN

You're challenged to destroy a single city in a set amount of time. If you destroy a city before time runs out, any time remaining on the current block carries over to the next block.

EVE OF DESTRUCTION

MONSTER SELECT

At the Monster Select Screen, press the directional buttons ← or → to view the available monsters. Press the ⊗ button to make a selection.

LOAD MONSTERS

By accessing a memory card in MEMORY CARD slot 1, player 2 can load unlocked monsters and special moves from their saved Profile by pressing the R2 Button at the Character Select screen. After accessing the memory card, a selection can be made from any Profiles listed.

Note: The Profile for Player 1 is the only Profile that can be saved. Other Profiles can be loaded in order to select Monsters and have access to unlocked abilities, but progress will only be saved to the Profile of Player 1.

EVE OF DESTRUCTION

CITY SELECT

Press the directional buttons  $\leftarrow$  or  $\rightarrow$  to cycle through the available cities. You can select any of the cities in King of the City and Timed Run mode. In King of the World and Campaign modes, you'll need to destroy a city before you can move onto the next city.

In a Campaign mode, players progress through the cities. When you first start this mode, all cities are locked and must be completed in a predetermined sequence. As each city is destroyed, it becomes unlocked and can be replayed at anytime in order to meet missed objectives.

TIME

Press the directional buttons  $\uparrow$  or  $\downarrow$  to toggle between day and night.

Note: This option is not available in Campaign Mode and King of the World.

THE HUD

TIME

Time counts down from a predetermined amount of minutes. The sooner you can meet your objective, the higher the bonus.

POINTS

Points accumulate as you destroy a city. See the Points section on page 16 for more information.

HEALTH

Keep an eye on your health, because you'll begin with only three lives. Your health diminishes as you take on damage. You can replenish your Health meter by eating people or other special health-boosting power-ups (food items) hidden within buildings.

LIVES

You'll begin with three lives. The number counts down to zero as you lose lives.

CHALLENGES

In Campaign mode, there are preset Challenges you'll need to meet in order to unlock monster abilities and gain more points.

RAMPAGE METER

See Rampage Mode, pg. 14.

DESTROY, DESTROY!

WHAT IS RAMPAGE: TOTAL DESTRUCTION?

You take on the role of humans mutated into giant monsters by the Scum Labs Corporation. As a giant monster, your goal is to progress through a series of city environments, causing as much destruction as possible. Locate and free hidden monsters created by the nefarious Scum Labs scientists, then destroy Dr. Vector's latest monster-neutralizing vehicle.

YOUR GOAL

Your goal in each level is to destroy buildings and collect bonuses before the timer runs out or you run out of lives. The challenge is to find out how to destroy buildings in the most efficient manner. This will maximize each level score. If the timer runs out, you'll move on to the next level. If the timer runs out on a Boss level, you will return to the start of that level.

ABOUT THE ENEMY

While attempting to destroy each city, you'll come under attack. You must destroy the attackers, or try to avoid them. Attackers come in the form of Humans with weapons, Military Vehicles (and aircraft) and level Bosses.

HOW DO YOU SCORE POINTS?

You're awarded points for destroying buildings, any vehicles and eating humans. Bonus pickups are uncovered in buildings, and additional points are awarded based on the speed of level completion. Boost your score by taking out multiple floors quickly for a combo bonus.

TOTAL DESTRUCTION

To destroy buildings, you must climb the available surfaces and employ a variety of attacks. Inflict damage to individual cells (windows) or entire floors. When a building sustains a certain damage threshold, it collapses.

DESTROY, DESTROY!

RAMPAGE MODE

In addition to a Health meter, each monster can go on a Rampage. The Rampage Meter fills as you destroy buildings. When the meter becomes full, your monster enters a Rage state, becoming temporarily enhanced to destroy buildings twice as fast. You may also use all of your upgrade attacks, even if you have not yet unlocked them..

For the duration of Rampage mode, the monster is highlighted with a glowing effect.

HIDDEN/COLLECTIBLE MONSTERS

In Campaign Mode, you can find and release captive monsters hidden within some levels. Once released, the new monsters are added to your Profile's collection of playable monsters.

Collectible monsters are miniaturized and encapsulated within cryo-tubes hidden in one of the city's levels. It's up to you to uncover and smash the capsule to release the new monster.

HAZARDS

As you cause damage to buildings, you also create hazardous obstacles that reduce health. Punching a hole in a building might produce a fire, electrical short or damaged water pipe. If you punch at the hole again, the monster catches fire, is electrocuted or sprayed off the building with a blast of water.

UPGRADES

MONSTER UPGRADES

You can upgrade a monster with four new attacks by locating special upgrade Powerups hidden throughout the game.

At the beginning of each new block, you will be given an upgrade challenge. Completing this challenge reveals an Upgrade Orb, which grants your monster a new powerful ability. If your monster has already gained the upgrade associated with a particular block, the upgrade challenge is replaced with a valuable 5000 point bonus challenge.

Upgrade moves are common for all monsters. They are:

Charge Punch

This upgrades the Strong Punch, allowing you to hold the ⊙ button to charge up a tremendous blow. Like the Strong Punch, this attack must be used while climbing a building.

Multi Spin

This upgrade allows your monster to execute up to three Spin Attacks before falling back to the ground. While Spinning, your rate of fall is greatly reduced.

Roar Attack

This allows your monster to convert a small amount of Rampage Energy into a shock wave that damages buildings and nearby foes.

Jump Smash

This allows your monster to interrupt a jump with the ⊙ button and drop directly to the ground with tremendous damage. This attack is especially damaging to Buildings.

Available Monster Upgrades are displayed at the Monster Select Screen (see Monster Select, pg. 10).

POINTS

Time Bonus

TIME BONUS

Each player gains points during gameplay. They're displayed after each city is destroyed. The faster you complete a level, the more points you'll be awarded.

The Role of Points

In Campaign Mode, enough points will earn you a valuable completion star. In Competitive game modes, points are used to determine a victor.

Destruction points

These are the basic points your monster gains when you inflict damage on a building. A low number of points is given every time you cause damage to a building. Completely destroying a window gives more points. Collapsing an entire floor gives more points, and causing chain-reactions of collapsing floors gives a tremendous combo bonus to your destruction score.

Bonus points

Some powerups give 100, 250 or 500 bonus points. Completing a bonus challenge or defeating Dr. Vector give even larger bonuses.

Vehicle Points

You'll get points for each car, tank, helicopter or any other vehicle you destroy.

People Points

Eating humans helps restore your life, and it also gives you a hefty point boost.

HINTS & TIPS

1. Playing as different monsters increases your chance of finding cryo-tubes.
2. Be certain to switch monsters periodically to unlock as many as possible.
3. Learn to avoid harmful powerups in buildings. If you see a red glow, - beware!
4. You can attack multiple times in the air.
5. Eliminating military threats quickly is often more effective than simply ignoring them.
6. Learn to use your roar attack to quickly take out large groups of enemies.
7. Smashing buildings from the roof is a great way to bring a city down quickly, but you won't score as many points.
8. Roaring during a Rampage requires no energy.
9. Learn the unique traits of your favorite monsters. Have you tried to collect a leaky pipe with Gilman?
10. A high "Crush" rating allows a monster to defeat enemies much more quickly.
11. If a boss encounter is giving you trouble, try using a monster with a higher Crush rating.
12. Learn to punch up and down while standing on the street. Helicopters and Tanks fear those attacks.
13. Hold down the jump button to jump higher. You might be surprised at how high you can ascend.
14. If something is hidden in a building, it will always be hidden in the same place.
