INTRODUCTION

CHARACTERS

Rocky Balboa

Rocky Balboa's storyline follows him from his early years as a young street fighter through to his joining Mickey's gym and working his way to the top of his profession via a lucky match with the heavyweight champion of the world – Apollo Creed. Once at the top, can he continue his dominance of the heavyweight division?

Apollo Creed

We first see Apollo Creed as an amateur champion fighting against Tony, whom he then invites to become his trainer as he turns pro. After a series of fights staged at locations such as Times Square and Las Vegas, his story finishes at the climax of the first Rocky movie with his defeat of Rocky.

Clubber Lang

Clubber Lang comes from the wrong side of the tracks. His story starts at a low point in his life with him incarcerated. His success in the ring provides him with a way out and into the big time. He stages a fight at the art museum steps to provoke Rocky into a match, and his story climaxes with the showdown against Rocky in New York from Rocky III.

Ivan Drago

Ivan Drago's storyline follows him from a raw recruit at a special military training camp to the high-tech facility that becomes his home as his trainers build him into the ultimate fighting machine. His fight locations use the old-style soviet iconography and often have a military feel, with fights set on the deck of a warship at sea, in a tank factory, etc. His second-to-last fight against Apollo in Vegas results in Apollo's death, leading to the final grudge match against Rocky in Moscow from Rocky IV.

GAME MENUS

Once you have selected a language, the game will launch, taking you to the Main Menu, where you can choose a game mode, view the gallery, or change your game options.

Main Menu

Career Mode

In Career mode, you can choose to play as Rocky, Apollo, Clubber, or Drago.

On completing the first fight, you will see a ranking chart with you at the bottom, in 25th place. From there, you can opt to fight either the 24th-, 23rd-, or 22nd-ranked boxer, moving up through the ranks at a maximum of three positions per fight. For example, if you are ranked 23rd and defeat the boxer ranked 21st, you move up to 21st and your opponent moves down a rank to 22nd. If you lose, you stay at 23rd.

Once you enter the top 10, you can only challenge boxers up to two positions ahead of you on the chart. This means you can move up a maximum of two positions per fight. If you lose a bout, you'll either stay put or drop one rank, depending on how the CPU opponents shuffle positions in the chart.

When choosing whom to challenge, your decision will also be influenced by the number of months until the fight, which is displayed on the ranking chart for each available opponent. This will typically be between one and three months, and it determines the number of training games in which you can take part before your scheduled fight. You must judge if you have enough time to train and get your physical stats where they need to be before tackling your opponent.

Exhibition Match

In Exhibition mode, you can pit any of the characters you have unlocked against one another.

Knockout Tournament

The Knockout Tournament mode generates a random series of fights that you must win to take the World Championship heavyweight belt. There are three levels to complete.

Training

The training games were a popular feature of the first game, and we have expanded them to allow you to train as each of the four main characters. Each character has his own gym, his own team, and a unique training game. The core games are sit-ups, punch mitts, skipping, heavy bag, and speed bag, with the addition of chin-ups for Clubber, who trains alone in a dark, run-down gym; a squat push machine for Drago, who trains at a high-tech soviet facility; and a special version of sparring for Apollo, who trains at his palatial gym with Tony. As Rocky, you can unlock the ability to “chase the chicken.” See the Training section for more information.

Practice Mode

Practice mode allows you to practice against other fighters with no time limits and no winners or losers. It's your chance to polish your skills and try out those combos before you have to use them for real. A help system guides you to the special moves for each player.

Options

This is where you can configure many of the game options.

Shop

In the shop, you can spend all the credits you win while playing. Use them to unlock new fighters, new arenas, and specific bonuses such as movie trailers.

Extras

In the Extras section, you can view boxer bios, venue descriptions, and unlocked Rocky movie trailers; listen to unlocked boxer introduction tunes; view records and replays; and see the game credits.

Survival Mode

Survival mode (once unlocked), allows you to fight in an infinite timed bout against an unlocked random opponent in a random arena, using normal game rules. The aim is to knock down as many opponents as possible, one after another, and achieve a high score. Get knocked down once and you're out.

Options Menu

This menu allows you to adjust game options and to save and load game configuration data.

Controller Setup

Select Controller Layout to choose from four preset control-configuration layouts. You can also enable or disable controller vibration from this screen. The default controller setup is layout A with vibration on.

Audio Options

This submenu lets you raise or lower the volume of in-game sound. The default settings are all full volume, except for crowd volume, which is set at 75%.

- Music volume: Empty/Full bar
- SFX volume: Empty/Full bar
- Crowd volume: Empty/Full bar

Game Settings

- Boxer Intros: Turning Boxer Intros off disables the walk-ins in Exhibition mode and Knockout Tournament mode (the default setting is On).
- Three-Knockdown Rule: When this is turned on, a boxer is automatically TKO'd after the third knockdown in a single round (the default setting is On).

- Saved by the Bell: When this is turned on, a boxer who has been knocked down can be saved by the bell ringing to end the round while he's still on the canvas (the default setting is On).
- Round Length: Set the round length for each fight in Exhibition mode between 30 and 180 seconds, or choose an infinite round length (the default length is 60 seconds).
- Number of Rounds: Set the number of rounds for each fight in Exhibition mode between 1 and 15.
- COM Skill: Set the COM Skill level in single-player Exhibition mode matches at Novice, Contender, or Champ (the default setting is Contender).

Load/Save Options

Load/Save Options allows you to load or to save option configurations to or from your memory card (8MB)(for PlayStation®2), along with any unlocked characters, arenas, and secrets.

PLAYING THE GAME

From the Main Menu, select Career mode and press the (X) button. When playing for the first time in a gameplay session, you can choose to either begin a new game or continue a saved game from a previously saved file. Resume Game allows you to continue from the place you left off when returning to Career mode during a gameplay session.

Starting a New Game

If you select Begin New Game, you must first choose a difficulty level. You can then enter your name using the directional buttons to select a character and the (X) button to confirm. Once you have entered your name, select Done to launch Career mode.

Loading a Game

Select Continue Saved Game to continue a saved game from a previously saved file.

Saving a Game

As you win each fight, you will be offered the chance to save your progress, continue (without saving), or quit to the Main Menu. Saves can be made to your memory card (8MB)(for PlayStation®2).

In-Game Interface

Round Time

Health and Punch Power Meters

Each boxer has his own Health and Punch Power meters located at the top of the screen. These meters will rise and fall during the fight. Each boxer's Health bar (green) shows his potential and actual health at the same time. Potential health is shown as a darker bar and depicts the maximum health you could regain if not hit during the round. Actual health is shown as a lighter bar and depicts your current health status during the round; if this bar is reduced to zero from a series of blows, your boxer will be knocked down.

Keeping an eye on the current level of the Punch Power meter (blue) is essential for throwing powerful punches. Each time you throw a punch, a small amount of Punch Power will be lost, but it will recover when you are not throwing punches. Try to keep your Punch Power meter as full as possible when throwing combos to inflict maximum damage.

Stunning an Opponent

You can stun your opponent by throwing fast combos, inflicting a large amount of damage in a short stretch of time. When your opponent is stunned, stars will fly around his head as he staggers to regain his composure. Use this opportunity to throw a barrage of punches or to try a devastating super punch to knock him straight to the canvas.

Super Punches

Each boxer has two super punches at his disposal. These punches are truly devastating and can floor your opponent in one shot. Because these punches are so powerful, they tend to take a little longer to throw, leaving you open to a counter and costing a great deal of energy to attempt. Use your super punches wisely, and they will give you the edge at any point in a fight.

Audience Bar

Each player has a yellow Audience bar, located beneath the round timer. The bar gets filled up when your boxer performs combo punches that successfully land or dodges that make his opponent miss. If you play skillfully, the audience will get behind your boxer and cheer him on. When the bar is full, you can perform a triple super combo punch. Just use the same controls for throwing a normal super punch, except this time you will throw three massive super punches in a devastating combo.

Once the bar is full, the words SUPER X3 will appear on-screen and you will have 20 seconds in which to throw the triple super combo punch. After 20 seconds you will lose the chance to throw the combo and your Audience bar will go down.

Throwing normal super punches when the bar is not full will also reduce the bar.

FURY Mode

If you have been knocked down a few times and are only one more knockdown away from being KO'd, you can enter FURY mode. When your energy is 30% or lower, press the SELECT button. Once FURY mode is activated, it will last for 20 seconds and allow you to throw punches twice as fast with double their normal power. On the downside, you cannot block, making you easy to hit if you don't go out aggressively and keep the pressure on. Use FURY mode wisely and you can come back from the jaws of defeat, but it won't be easy.

Blocking

You can block punches by holding down the L1 button. As each punch lands against your block, your block will begin to weaken and start to let punches through. You can tell how strong your potential block is by looking at how much your boxer sways after each hit. If he is only moving a little, then your block is still effective. When your boxer begins to rock more from each hit, your block effectiveness is decreasing, allowing more punches to land. At this point you should try to dodge and get away from danger. Releasing the Block button for a short time will allow your block effectiveness to recover and get you back into the fight.

Taunting

Taunting is a great way to rile your opponent and to get the fight going. It also has other beneficial factors. Press the SELECT button to start a taunt. If performed fully once each round, your boxer will receive a small increase to his Health and Punch Power meters.

Knockdown Screen

If your boxer has been knocked down, then you must tap the \otimes button as fast as you can to regain your senses and to get to your feet. Once the bar at the bottom of the screen is full, the boxer will re-enter the fight. If you can't fill this bar before the count reaches 10, then your boxer has been knocked out and the fight is over.

Knockdown Count

The Knockdown Count only applies if the Three-Knockdown Rule is switched on in the Options menu. At the start of each round, all three TKO lights are unlit. Each time you're floored in a round, one of your TKO lights will be turned on. If your opponent manages to knock you down three times in one round, lighting all the lights, the fight will be stopped and you will lose by a Technical Knockout Decision.

End Game

The game will end if you become the champ in all four career paths, or if you lose too many fights and use up all three of your continues (these three continues are shared among the four legends).

Training Games

Apollo Sparring Game

This game uses standard in-game fight controls.

In Attack mode, land as many punches as possible on your sparring partner. Complete the combos for bonus points.

In Defense mode, stay within the colored circle and block or avoid as many punches as possible. Your defense bonus decreases if you punch your sparring partner while in Defense mode.

Clubber Chin-up Game

Tap the ⊗ button and ⊙ button alternately to make Clubber perform chin-ups as fast as possible. Quickly tap the ⊗ button and ⊙ button to raise yourself above the top guide bar. Stop tapping to come back down, and press the ⊠ button when the slider passes over the bottom guide to complete the chin-up. Aim to get as close to the top and bottom guide bars as possible for the highest scores.

Drago Squat Push Game

Hold the L1 button or the R1 button to pump your left or right leg respectively until the red segment passes over the white bar. Release the buttons as close to the white bar as possible to score. Extra points are awarded for performing well-timed squats. Your squat speed will increase during the training session.

Skipping

Tap the ⊗ button as you pass through the stationary target to skip. Hold the L1 button to activate combination skips. Press the appropriate buttons in order to complete a combo. Successful combos increase your skipping speed. Release the L1 button to slow down. Extra points are awarded for performing well-timed skips and combos.

Heavy Bag

Move around the bag, practicing your moves using standard in-game fight controls. Only punches thrown from within the green zone on the floor will score. Achieve higher scores by throwing successful combos from the list on the left-hand side of the screen.

Speed Bag

Listen to your trainer calling out which punches to throw. The ⊗ button and the ⊙ button throw left and right punches respectively. Alternate the buttons for doubles and one-twos. Keep the speed indicator within the moving markers to score. The speed of the bag increases when the speed indicator is in the right half of the marker zone.

Sit-ups

Rhythmically tap the ⊗ button and ⊙ button to perform sit-ups. Tap the buttons quickly to get "in the zone" and to score more points. Tap too fast and you'll burn out, sapping your energy level. Keep an eye on your stamina bar and slow your sit-ups down to recover.

Punch Mitts

Respond to the punch moves your trainer calls out. Use the on-screen icons as a guide, and press the corresponding buttons to hit the pads. Fast reactions achieve higher scores. The difficulty level will be stepped up by your trainer as you land successful punches.

Hint: Perfect hitting earns bonus points.

Chase the Chicken

Use the left analog stick or directional buttons to control Rocky's movement. Press the ⊗ button to dive and the ⊙ button to grab. Try to catch all the chickens before the timer runs out.

Hint: Use slow movement to get close to the chicken before attempting a grab.
