INTRODUCTION

Cash Games – All references to “Cash Games” or “Live Games” are references to poker games in which the player can sit down at the table and play as long as they want and leave the table when they want. “Cash Games” does not refer in any way to a game in which the player can win or lose money or any other prize, award or consideration.

STACKED gives you the chance to enter the exciting world of high stakes Texas Hold'em poker without leaving your sofa. You can choose to play at a Cash Game table for a couple of hands, or stay in for the long haul in a tournament. Single player modes include the Career Mode and Quick Play Mode. Both modes incorporate Cash Game tables and Single and Multi-Table Tournaments. Online games include Cash Game tables and Tournament games including MTV STACKED Masters sponsored tournaments.

In addition, STACKED offers comprehensive tutorials and tips from Daniel Negreanu himself featuring everything from the basics of play to advanced world class strategies. The STACKED Poker School is an indispensable companion for any Texas Hold'em player – novice and expert alike.

MAIN MENU

Accessible Features

Online Multi-player Mode

Using an Internet connection you will be able to play other online participants in Cash Games and Single and Multi-table tournaments. Persistent stats will be recorded for each Player ID. If a network connection exists: Upon the initial start up of STACKED the game will automatically connect to the game servers once the START button has been pressed.

STACKED Poker School

Daniel Negreanu hosts a multi-chapter poker tutorial that will teach the novice player the basics of Texas Hold'em as well as pass on valuable professional strategies to the veteran player.

Career Mode

This single player mode simulates a poker player's career as they start with a relatively small bankroll and increase their wealth over time by playing skillful poker. As you increase your bankroll you are able to enter bigger, higher money tournaments and unlock new casino environments while facing off against seven of the world's best professional players. Persistent statistics will be recorded for each Player ID. You will be able to play at Cash Game Tables and Single and Multi-table tournaments. Advice from Daniel will be available during game play in the form of an Ask Daniel feature that will give insight on how to play a particular hand and a Pro Tips feature that will offer advice for specific game scenarios.

Quick Play Mode

Play Cash Games and Single Table Tournaments without creating a Player ID or tracking stats. Your poker guide, Daniel Negreanu, will offer tips and advice to the player via the Ask Daniel and Pro Tips features available in this game mode.

Player Management

Player Management lets you rename your Player Character, change your player's appearance and track your statistics. Choose from 18 player types or unlock and use any of the seven professional players in Career Mode. You can choose from among several accessories including caps, sunglasses, hair color and outfits.

Settings

The Settings sub-menu will let you adjust audio and game-play settings.

PLAYER MANAGEMENT

Character Setup

Upon game start up you will be prompted to load or create a Player ID for use in all game modes. Statistics for this Player ID will be kept separately for Career Mode and Online play. To load a Player ID select that character's name from the menu buttons. If you choose to create a new Player ID you will be taken to the Name screen followed by the Player Appearance screen. Once you are satisfied with your player you can press the Action button and proceed to the Main Menu screen.

Statistics

Statistics will be kept for each Player ID and are accessible from the Player Management menu screen. You can select from Overall Stats, Cash Game Stats and Tournament Stats.

Playable Characters

When configuring your Player ID you can choose from a selection of eighteen different character types. Skin Type, Clothing, Hair Style, Cap, Cap Style, Sunglasses and Tournament Winner Rings are all customizable for these character types.

Professional Players

While playing in Career Mode you can unlock several of the professional poker players featured in STACKED. Unlocking the pro players will let you change your Player ID appearance to one of the pros for use in Quick Play and Career Modes. The Pro Player characters' appearance cannot be altered, however.

While playing online however you will not be able to use any of the pro players' appearances as your Player ID appearance. If you enter the Online Mode with a Player ID using a pro player's appearance you will be prompted to select a new character appearance. The reason for this restriction is to reserve the professional player characters for use by the professionals themselves. Meaning if you see Daniel Negreanu at a table online you are really seeing Daniel Negreanu playing STACKED!

Home Router/Firewall Configuration Information

A Firewall is a network device that sits on a data network between the Internet and the user and looks at all traffic going back and forth to determine which traffic to allow. Firewalls are most often used in corporate environments or in home routers where a high speed Internet connection is shared with another device, such as a PC or a video game console. Firewalls and routers can be configured many different ways depending on the desired behavior, however the most common configurations will not allow any "unsolicited" traffic to a computer behind the firewall. Only after the computer behind the firewall has contacted an outside machine is any traffic from that outside machine allowed past the firewall. Myelin Media, LLC does not support the use of firewalls or routers for multiplayer online play. Because firewalls, routers and Internet sharing are increasingly common in the home network environment, the following configuration information is provided for advanced users who wish to customize their home network settings in order to accommodate online multiplayer play. MYELIN MEDIA, LLC. ASSUMES NO LIABILITY FOR DAMAGE RESULTING FROM THE CONNECTION OF ANY DEVICE TO THE PLAYSTATION®2, NOR THE LOSS OF DATA OR OTHER PROBLEMS RESULTING FROM ANY CHANGES YOU MAKE TO YOU EXISTING ROUTER/FIREWALL NETWORK SETTINGS.

In order to configure a router using Network Address Translation (NAT) or a firewall, consult the user guide for your router to enable PORT FORWARDING settings as specified below. Forward or route all traffic onto the following ports to the IP address of your PlayStation®2:

STACKED uses UDP port(s) #1000, #3304

STACKED supports "NAT negotiation" a system that tries to find open ports with firewalls and routers, allowing for a full gameplay experience. This process may however delay connections. For best performance do not run STACKED behind a firewall. It may take several minutes for you to connect if you are playing from behind a firewall.

If you are still having difficulty with online play, consider connecting your PlayStation®2 directly to your broadband connection. Some modern home routers have built-in support, which can keep devices outside the local network, bypassing the local firewall. To enable this feature (sometimes called DMZ), please consult your home router manual for details on setup and configuration.

MTV STACKED Masters

To truly foster a sense of community and competition STACKED has created a tournament points system based on several criteria. These MTV STACKED Masters points are calculated and displayed next to the Player ID associated with it in the MTV STACKED Masters Leaderboard accessible through the Statistics screen in the Player Management menu. This leaderboard will continually update as regularly scheduled Masters tournaments are played.

These regularly scheduled, officially sanctioned MTV STACKED Masters tournaments can be found through the Optimal Match search option.

MTV STACKED Masters Points System

The MTV STACKED Masters points calculations are based on:

- Buy In amount – This is the amount of money required to buy a seat in the tournament.
- Number of entrants in the tournament.
- Place finish (1st, 2nd, 3rd place etc.)

Check out STACKED.mtv.com for news, complete tournament schedules, standings, and player statistics.

Hall Of Fame

Truly notable achievements based on your online statistics are displayed in the online Hall of Fame screen. Online players with the best statistics in each category will be displayed in the Hall of Fame until a new player sets a record in a particular category. This is accessed through the Online Player Management screen.

TEXAS HOLD'EM

Introduction

Texas Hold'em is arguably the most popular form of poker. The object of Hold'em is simple: create the best 5 card poker hand possible using any combination of the 2 cards in your hand (known as 'pocket' or 'hole' cards) and the 5 community cards (known as 'board' cards) dealt face up on the table in front of the dealer.

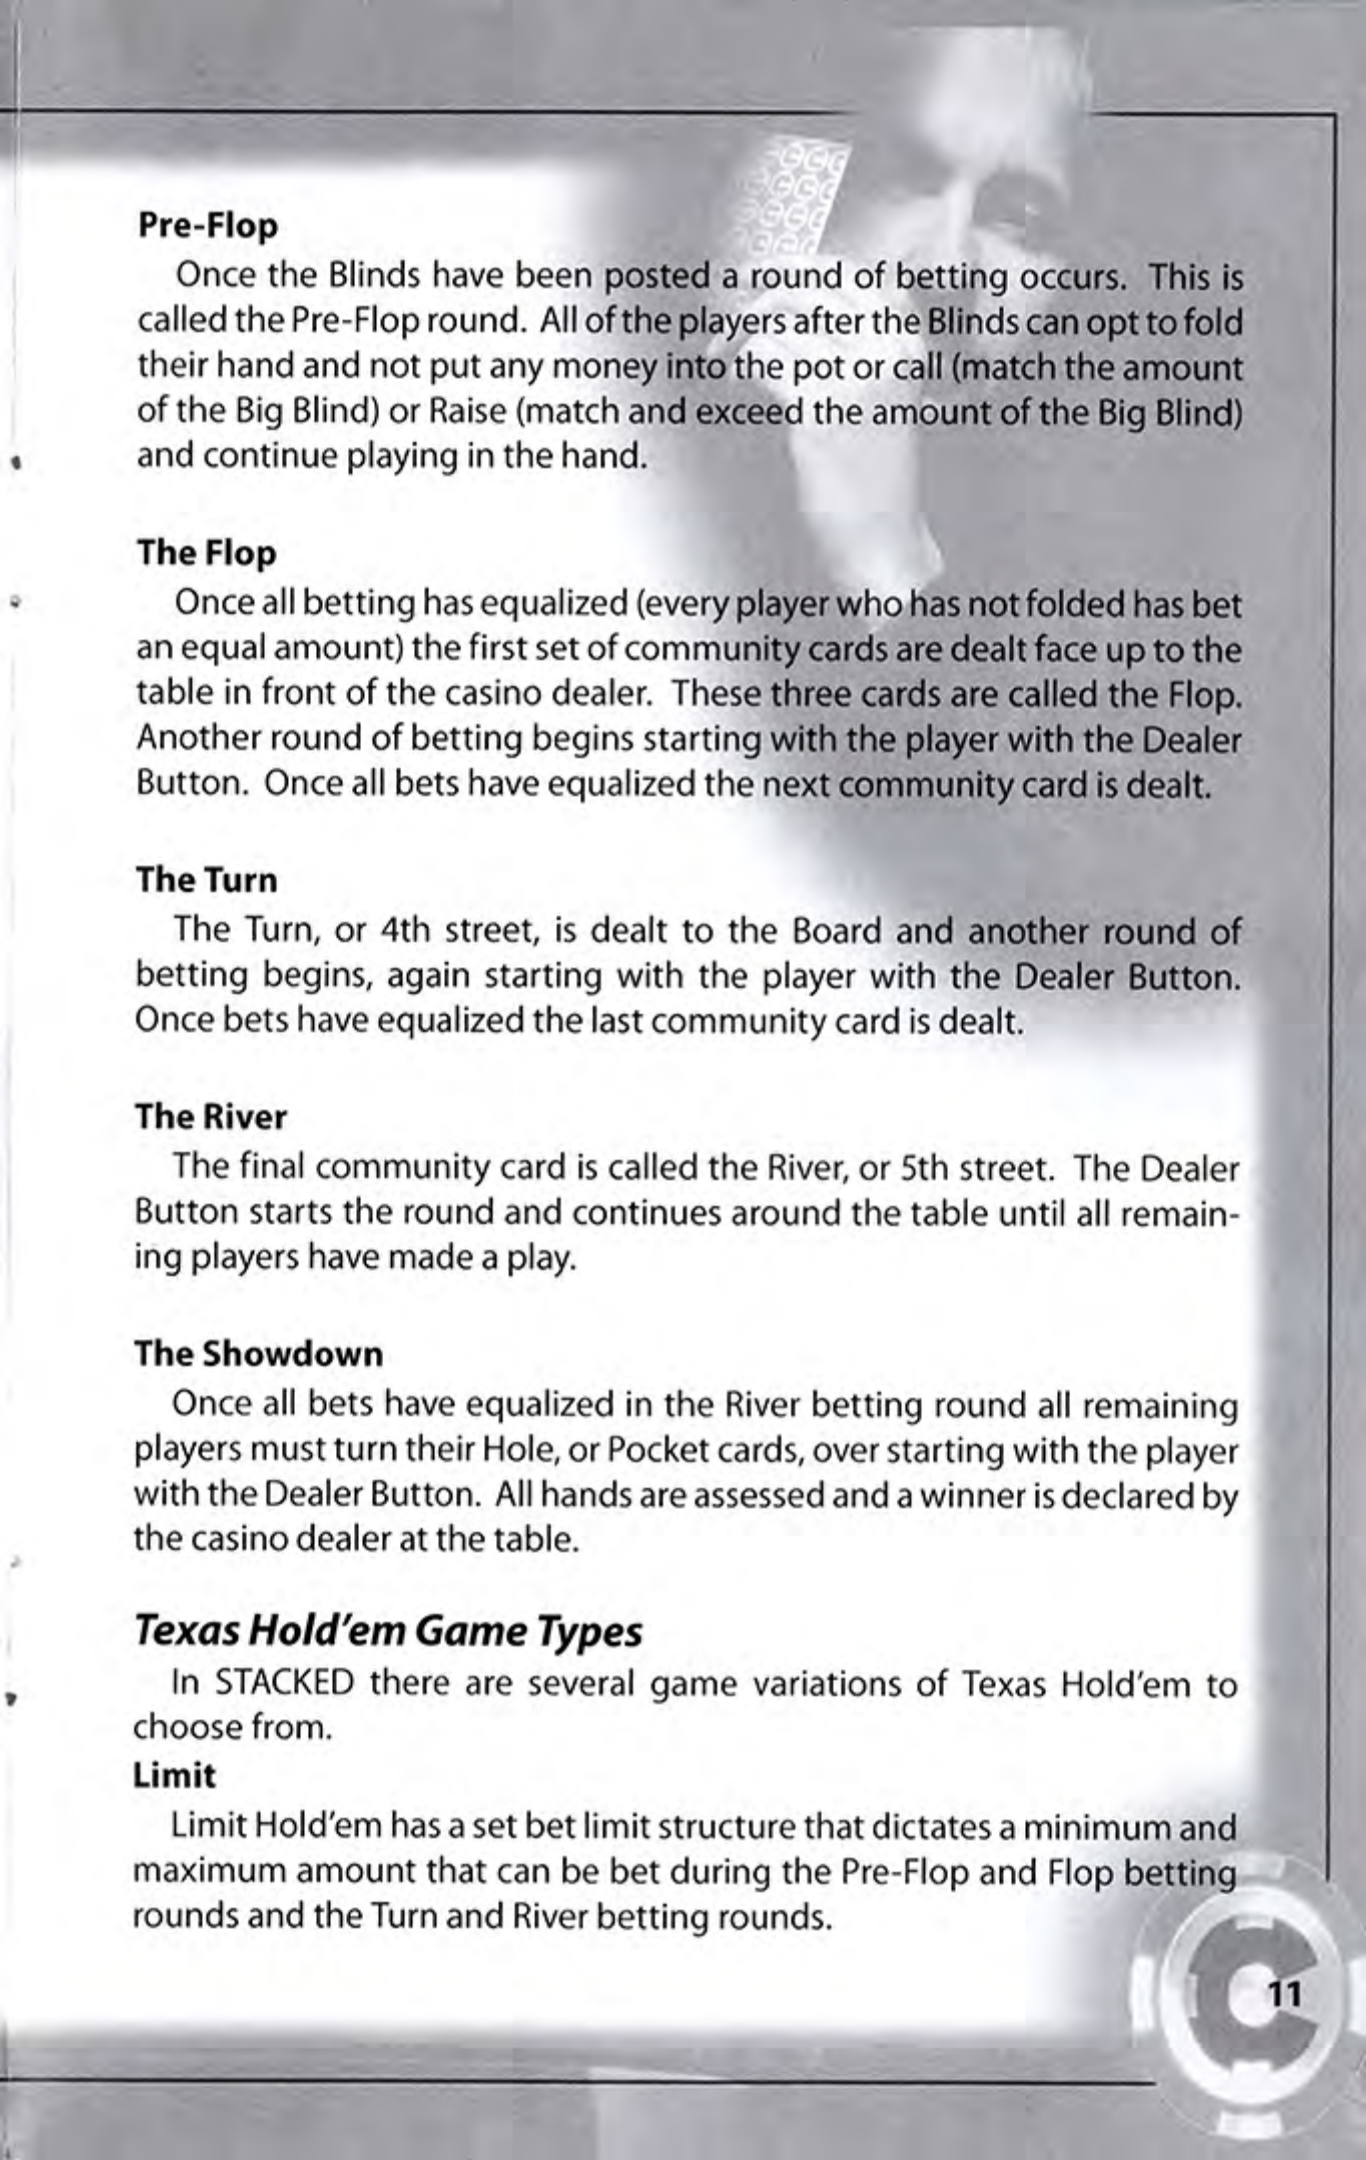

Texas Hold'em Rules

In Texas Hold'em you will bet chips based on monetary denominations into the pot for a chance to win all of the chips in the pot bet by the players. As with most poker games the player has several play options available to them. During play you can:

- Bet – Take chips from your bankroll chipstack and place them in the pot.
- Check – If no players preceding you have bet you have the option to continue playing in the hand without placing any more money in the pot.
- Call – Place a chip amount into the pot that matches a previous player's bet.
- Raise – Call plus an additional amount of chips placed into the pot.
- Fold – Discard your cards without adding any additional chips to the pot.

Blinds

In Texas Hold'em a Dealer Button signifies who the last player dealt to in a hand is. At the beginning of a game this is done by 'high carding' (dealing one card face up to each player with the highest ranking card winning the Button) after that the Button is passed to the next player to the left of the last Dealer at the conclusion of a hand. Before any cards are dealt, the two players to the left of the Button, called the Blinds, must put money into the pot. These players are called the 'Blinds' because they have to bet chips without having seen their cards. The player to the immediate left of the Button is called the Small Blind they must bet, or 'post', a chip amount equaling half the amount of the minimum bet. The second player to the left of the Dealer Button, known as the Big Blind, posts a chip amount equaling the minimum bet. Once the Blinds are posted the casino dealer will deal out two cards face down to all of the players starting with the Small Blind.

Pre-Flop

Once the Blinds have been posted a round of betting occurs. This is called the Pre-Flop round. All of the players after the Blinds can opt to fold their hand and not put any money into the pot or call (match the amount of the Big Blind) or Raise (match and exceed the amount of the Big Blind) and continue playing in the hand.

The Flop

Once all betting has equalized (every player who has not folded has bet an equal amount) the first set of community cards are dealt face up to the table in front of the casino dealer. These three cards are called the Flop. Another round of betting begins starting with the player with the Dealer Button. Once all bets have equalized the next community card is dealt.

The Turn

The Turn, or 4th street, is dealt to the Board and another round of betting begins, again starting with the player with the Dealer Button. Once bets have equalized the last community card is dealt.

The River

The final community card is called the River, or 5th street. The Dealer Button starts the round and continues around the table until all remaining players have made a play.

The Showdown

Once all bets have equalized in the River betting round all remaining players must turn their Hole, or Pocket cards, over starting with the player with the Dealer Button. All hands are assessed and a winner is declared by the casino dealer at the table.

Texas Hold'em Game Types

In STACKED there are several game variations of Texas Hold'em to choose from.

Limit

Limit Hold'em has a set bet limit structure that dictates a minimum and maximum amount that can be bet during the Pre-Flop and Flop betting rounds and the Turn and River betting rounds.

No Limit

In No Limit Hold'em the player doesn't have any restrictions on the maximum amount they are allowed to bet. Nor are they required to bet a specific amount based on what betting round it is.

Cash Games

Cash Games, or Live Play Games, are poker games in which the player can sit down at the table and play as long as they want and leave the table when they want.

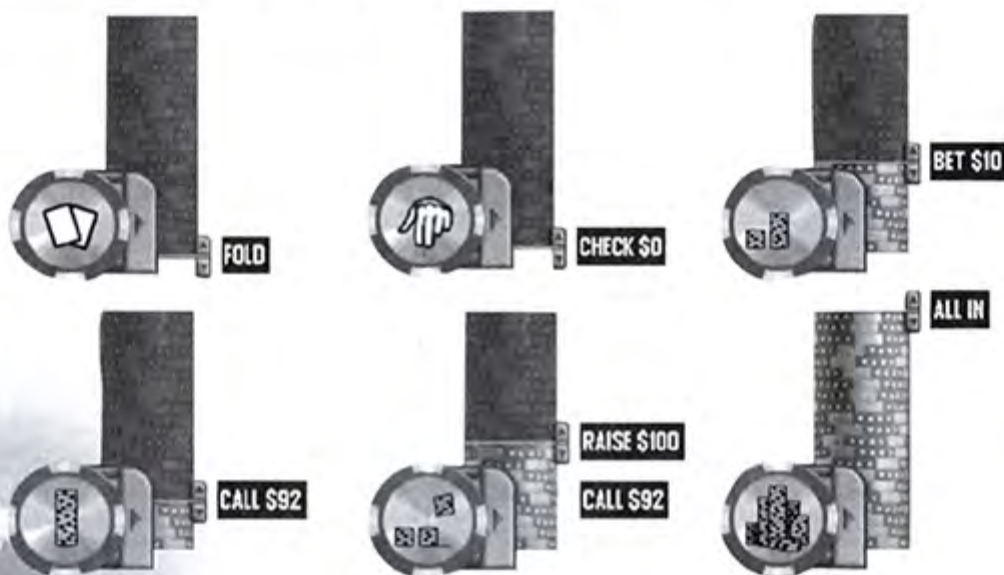

Tournament

Tournament poker requires the players to Buy In to a game to receive a set amount of chips. All the players in the tournament receive the same amount of chips at the beginning of the game. The tournament is played until one player remains holding all of the chips. The winner receives a portion of the total Buy in money contributed by the tournament participants.

USER INTERFACE

Introduction

STACKED uses a unique mechanism to place bets and trigger player character actions. The ingame user interface uses a meter-like device in the image of a stack of chips to set bet amounts. The amount of chips bet indicates what play the player is making with that action displayed in text to the right of the meter.

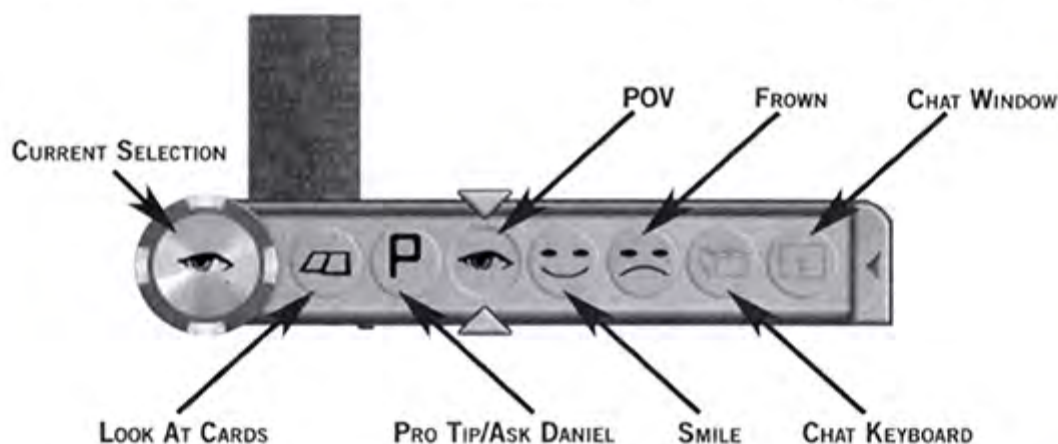

User Interface

Bet amounts are increased or decreased by pressing up or down on the directional buttons or left analog stick. The bet amounts will increment to the minimum bet or call amount at that time in the hand. Pressing the up directional button once will increase your bet amount to the lowest possible raise amount. In a No Limit game the meter will begin to increment in small amounts increasing in size the longer the up directional button is held down. In No Limit the meter will top out at an All In bet. Pressing the down directional button will decrease the bet amount and bottom out on the Fold action.

To select a play press the Action button. You can even pre-select a play prior to your turn. The action text to the right of the meter will flash indicating that that is the play that will occur when your turn comes around. If the pre-selected play is still valid when it is your turn, your player character will act out that play. If a pre-selected play is made invalid by another player's actions (for example you pre-selected a call for $50 and another player raises the original amount by $100 thus making your call of $50 invalid.) then your pre-selected play will stop flashing and you are able to select a new play.

Another feature of the User Interface is the Scroll Out Window. The Scroll Out Window contains additional actions and options available to the player. The Scroll Out Window is activated by pressing the right directional button. The Scroll Out Window contains the following actions and options:

- Look At Cards

- Pro Tip/Ask Daniel — This feature gives you advice from poker professional, Daniel Negreanu. The Ask Daniel feature is available in single player games and will let you know what play is the smartest play at that particular time. The Pro Tips are also available in single player games and are more extensive than the Ask Daniel messages. They are available when a specific game scenario has triggered an appropriate Pro Tip. Because the Ask Daniel and Pro Tip features serve the same purpose if a Pro Tip is available it will take the place of the Ask Daniel advice therefore the Ask Daniel feature will not be available when a Pro Tip is triggered.

- 1st Person POV Camera — When activated this will switch the camera view from the multiple television cameras to the perspective of your player character seated at the table.

- Smile — This button will make your player character smile.

- Frown — This button will make your player character frown.

- Chat Keyboard — When playing online or networked games this button will activate the keyboard interface overlay and Chat Window allowing you to type and send messages to your fellow players.

- Chat Window — When playing online or networked games this button will activate the Chat Window allowing you to receive and track chat messages sent by your fellow players.

When the fold action is selected the meter will disappear indicating that you are out of the current hand. The Chip and Scroll Out Window will still be accessible even when you are out of a hand. Additionally, a Speed Play option is available that is accessible through the User Interface after you fold. This feature when activated will use one camera angle and bypass any peripheral animations thus speeding up gameplay until the next hand begins.

Heads Up Display (HUD)

All of the players at the table will have Heads Up Displays associated with them. The HUDs will let you know:

- Name
- Bankroll/Chipstack amount
- A Player's Last Play
- A Player's Poker Hand at the end of a hand.
- Make A Play Alert – Let's you know that it is your turn to choose a play.
- Hand Strength – Calculates the potential strength of your current hand. Activated with Look At Cards button in single player mode.

Your HUD is colored red and appears in the expanded view while the other players at the table will appear gray. Only your HUD and the active player's HUD will appear in the expanded view while all the other players' HUDs will appear in the minimized view. In the minimized view all of the information displayed in the expanded HUD will scroll through the HUD window. When a player folds their HUD will disappear.

The cards in your hand (Hole Cards) will appear to the right of your HUD. When you press the Look At Cards button, either on the controller or in the Scroll Out Window, the cards displayed next to your HUD will turn face up. Only the player holding those cards will see them face up.

Pot Indicator

The Pot Indicator is located in the upper right corner of the screen. The upper window displays the amount of chips in the pot. The lower window displays:

- Game Type
- Blind Levels
- Tournament Level
- Time remaining until tournament level raises.

When there are multiple pots in play, the Side Pots will be displayed in windows directly beneath the Pot Indicator.

Board Indicator and Look At Cards Window

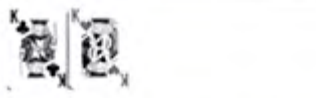

The Board Indicator is located in the lower right corner of the screen. This displays the community cards that are face up on the table in front of the dealer (this is known as the Board).

When the Look At Cards option is triggered the Look At Cards Window will rise out of the Board Indicator and your cards will be displayed through a window in the table top located directly in front of your player character.
