THE HEAVENS BLAZE

The Center for Space Development was suddenly hit with a highly concentrated energy beam; now only a barren wasteland marks the spot where the proud complex once stood...in minutes, news of the destruction reached the Department of Defense. A terrorists group called the Crying Lions had accessed GULF, a top-secret strategic weapons satellite in orbit, and fired it without mercy.

As reports of the damage flooded in, the Secretary of Defense received a message from Kenneth Coleman, the leader of the Crying Lions. Soon, the Secretary was faced with the awful realization that the Crying Lions were not open to any negotiations. They wanted freedom for their homeland Zarozcia, and would stop at nothing to attain it.

There are only three hours until the GULF satellite is powered up and ready to fire again. The Secretary knows he has only one card left to play. He orders the S.C.A.T. team to mobilize — their orders:

INFILTRATE THE BASE AT WESTHAM AND RETAKE CONTROL OF THE GULF SATELLITE!

CHARACTERS

S.C.A.T.

S.C.A.T. (Strategic Covert Actions Team) is a top-secret band of anti-terrorist operatives formed under the auspices of the President in order to deal with terrorist actions that threaten national security.

JEAN-LUC COUGAR

27 years old and single, Jean-Luc is a former member of a city SWAT team. His ability to remain level-headed in even the most harrowing situations earned him the spot as the leader of S.C.A.T.'s Advance Strike Team. He is highly respected by the younger teammates and finds it easier to express his fighting spirit in actions rather than words.

LISA ROBERTS

She is the only female member of S.C.A.T. Her grandmother was Japanese, and Lisa claims to possess a strong fighting spirit. After acing her courses on criminal psychology at the university, she went on to join the National Bureau of Investigation. She was offered a position in S.C.A.T. after Dan saw her in action during a training session at the N.B.I. academy.

JAKE HUDSON

A former Army grunt, Jake joined S.C.A.T. at the same time as Jean-Luc. He is somewhat of a prankster and loves to pick on Lisa whenever he gets the chance. He is as brave as they come and his shooting and combat skills are equal to those of Jean-Luc.

DANIEL STEWART
S.C.A.T. commander and former member of the Navy Special Forces. His vast experience has earned him the trust and respect of his team.

LAW BRUFORD The big man on the team and former Navy officer. He is unmatched in hand-to-hand combat, and was Jean-Luc's toughest competition for leader of the Advanced Strike Team.

MATT BROWN Veteran member of the team and former Air Force officer. He is also a former boxer.

STEVEN LEGAL
Lieutenant commander of the team. He received most of his training in the British Secret Service. His information gathering and keen analytical skills make him the top choice for any scouting mission.

MIKE HAWKINS
Demolitions expert and former member of the National Drug Enforcement Agency's bomb squad. Highly skilled in defusing bombs and destroying obstructions.

THOMAS SMITH
Communications expert and former member of the computer crime division in the National Bureau of Investigations. He is well versed in all facets of high-tech electronics.

KEITH BIRDY Medical officer. As a rookie and the youngest member of the team, he joined S.C.A.T. with the highest recommendations from the President.

CRYING LIONS

The radical Zarozcia Liberation Movement. Many of its members are Zarozcians, but the group also enlists mercenaries and harsh criminals from all over the world. It is by no means an orderly military organization.

KENNETH COLEMAN

This former officer in the Zarozcian army is now the leader of the terrorist group called the Crying Lions. The terrorists he leads address him as colonel.

CECILE CARLYLE

The mere mention of Coleman's right-hand man is enough to instill fear in even the hardest of criminals. He is wanted for international war crimes.

HARD LUCK LILA

This cold-blooded killer has pumped enough iron to enable her to wield a massive machine gun with ease.

SURVIVAL TECHNIQUES

"Hi, I'm Jean-Luc. I want to go over the fighting manual once more before our assault, so listen up. You'll make all of the S.C.A.T. members look bad if you forget any one of these pointers... so don't."

[TIP #1] CAPTURE BEFORE ATTACKING

If you want to drastically improve the accuracy of repeated firing, lock the camera on an enemy using the △ button. No matter which direction the enemy moves, you will be able to take aim and shoot with much greater accuracy.

Capture an enemy with the △ button. As long as an enemy is within your view, you can lock the camera on him while you remain hidden.

Notice how the sight follows your enemy's every move.

[TIP #2] NEUTRALIZE WITH RAPID FIRE

After your first shot hits an enemy, follow-up with more gunfire. Use rapid firing to neutralize your enemy before he has a chance to recover. Show no mercy.

Give your enemy no chance to retaliate.

[TIP #3] AIM FOR VITAL SPOTS

The damage you inflict changes depending on where you hit an enemy. You can quickly eliminate enemies by aiming for vital spots like the head. Even the handgun can eliminate an enemy with one shot in the back.

All it takes is one shot from behind.

[TIP #4] AVOID ENEMY FIRE

Don't make yourself an easy target. No matter how tough you think you are, you won't last long if you don't use obstacles to avoid enemy fire.

1/ With your back to the wall, use the right analog stick to change the camera angle and get a bead on the enemy.

Use Walls

Press the □ button when standing in front of a wall to place your back against the wall. Swing out, fire off a shot and swing back to safety. This hit-and-run tactic is a basic principle of fighting.

2/ Hold down the R1 button to swing out, take aim and fire.

3/ Release the R1 button to swing back around the corner before the enemy can return fire.

When crouched in front of a wall or object, press the □ button to put your back against it.

Obstacles

Hide from enemies by crouching behind crates and steel drums.

Tumble to safety!

Drop and Roll

If you unexpectedly run across an enemy, tumble forward to safety.

[TIP #5] USE THE RIGHT WEAPON

Don't use a weapon just because it looks cool. Each weapon has its own strengths and weaknesses. Use the ○ button to change weapons.

Handgun

You'll be glad that your handgun doesn't run out of ammo because you'll have to reload often. It only has average power, but its lightness makes the time it takes to aim and fire shorter than any other weapon. Use your handgun to take out minor bad guys and save all your other ammo for the real tough fights.

Machine Gun

This has the longest range. Even when you can't camera capture an enemy with the handgun, you can usually capture him if you switch to the machine gun. You can rapidly fire several rounds at once by holding down the □ button, but I don't recommend this because it's usually a waste of ammo.

Shotgun

It has the shortest range, but packs the most power. It is especially useful when you are surrounded by enemies in cramped quarters. It can also take down several enemies at once if they are close together. The only drawbacks are that it takes a long time to reload and carries only a small supply of ammo.

Handgun with Silencer

This is your best choice for taking out enemies one-by-one from behind. Because it makes little noise, you won't attract unnecessary attention. However, this is not standard S.C.A.T. gear, so you'll have to find one if you want to use it, and I don't have the slightest idea where it is.

[TIP #6] MAKE EXPLOSIONS WORK FOR YOU

Sometimes explosions can do your work for you. Just take aim at an explosive crate or steel drum and fire. One explosion can cause a lot of damage. Just make sure you keep yourself out of harms way.

Here is a list of possible explosives we know about. Other information indicates that items are hidden in crates, so destroy what you can and see what you can find.

Send enemies flying with a well-timed explosion!

Wooden Crate (non-explosive)

Explosive Crate

Steel Drum (explosive)

[TIP #7] DEFUSE DEATH TRAPS

It only takes one touch of a laser trap to leave you as a smoldering corpse on the ground. Defuse the trap by destroying the controls.

Many of the laser traps are hidden from plain view. Search for them carefully.

Destroy the trap controls; they're usually located a short distance from the trap.

"It's time to roll out. We'd better hurry to the heliport. Let's hope we both make it back alive. Good luck soldier."
