Important Health Warning About Playing Video Games

Photosensitive Seizures

A very small percentage of people may experience a seizure when exposed to certain visual images, including flashing lights or patterns that may appear in video games. Even people who have no history of seizures or epilepsy may have an undiagnosed condition that can cause these "photosensitive epileptic seizures" while watching video games.

These seizures may have a variety of symptoms, including lightheadedness, altered vision, eye or face twitching, jerking or shaking of arms or legs, disorientation, confusion, or momentary loss of awareness. Seizures may also cause loss of consciousness or convulsions that can lead to injury from falling down or striking nearby objects.

Immediately stop playing and consult a doctor if you experience any of these symptoms. Parents should watch for or ask their children about the above symptoms—children and teenagers are more likely than adults to experience these seizures. The risk of photosensitive epileptic seizures may be reduced by taking the following precautions:

- Sit farther from the television screen.
- Use a smaller television screen.
- Play in a well-lit room.
- Do not play when you are drowsy or fatigued.

If you or any of your relatives have a history of seizures or epilepsy, consult a doctor before playing

Grades & Ratings

Grade

Grades are set by DOATEC (DOA Tournament Executive Committee) and are the official ranks assigned to DOA players. The highest grade is SS and the lowest is F-. First-time players start with a grade of C. You can tell an opponent's strength from their grade – use this information to find a suitable opponent when creating or searching a session. Grades are decided according to Grade Points (GP), which increase when you win a battle and decrease when you lose. The number of GP available depends on the strength of your opponent - beat a strong opponent and you receive more GP. Bonuses are awarded if you win several battles in succession or win battles in certain modes. Be careful – if you abandon a battle mid-way or your connection is lost you will incur a heavy penalty.

Rating

Your rating is calculated from your win ratio and number of battles won. However, you can't increase your rating just by increasing your win ratio – you must take part in more battles. As with grades, you incur a heavy penalty if you abandon a battle mid-way or if your connection is lost. The strongest players are those with both a high grade and a high rating.

* To ensure fair competition, DOA Online grades, ratings and other ranks may be reset without notice. Thank you for your cooperation.

Zack(Z)

Zack(Z) are awarded when you win a battle and are used to buy items from Zack's Shop.

INTRODUCTION

Soon after the death of its founder, Fame Douglas, the ultranational organization DOATEC descended into a state of corrupt decay.

However, it has now received a beautiful successor to its leadership: Helena, the child that Fame Douglas left behind.

After losing both her father and her beloved mother to the darkness of conspiracy, Helena has chosen to place herself in the middle of the maelstrom in order to put an end to the chain of tragedy once and for all.

Meanwhile, the man who holds the true power at DOATEC, Prof. Victor Donovan, has once again locked himself in the Bio Lab Core deep within the dank, dark bowels of the gigantic Tritower as he continues to covet his dream of creating the perfect human weapon. Its code name is Alpha-152, and it is the result of the ultimate evolution of hyper-cloning technology, birthed from a DNA sample of the Mugen Tenshin Ninja Kasumi.

On the other side of the world, the Mugen Tenshin Clan has gathered, a family of Ninjas that have suffered innumerable pain at the hands of DOATEC. The young leader of the clan, Hayate, his heart burning with the desire for revenge, has brought together the most powerful group of Ninjas known to man and given them one simple order:

“DOATEC must be destroyed!”

Now, as the 4th Dead or Alive Martial Arts tournament is in progress, the first fetal rumblings of movement from Alpha-152 can be felt coursing through the magnificence of the Tritower complex.

It is at this moment that these two great opposing powers, intertwined by fate, are destined to collide in a cataclysmic inferno of fire and smoke.

This is the final battle, the one that will settle everything...
