Liberty City Subway Map

Getting Around Facts

Everyone is on the move in Liberty City and getting around is not for the faint-hearted. Served by five bridges, a sophisticated subway system and the best taxi service in the world, there are lots of ways to get from A to B. Tours by helicopter and boat are also available for those wanting to take in the most scenic parts of the city such as Middle Park or Happiness Island. For those wanting to drive themselves, countless vehicles are there for the taking on the streets of Liberty City. By land, air or water, you will find a solution to beat the rush-hour traffic.

Liberty City is first and foremost a walking city. The locals are open and friendly, until you get in their way and then they will turn on you like a pitbull. Walking is also the only way to truly discover all the hidden spots and details of Liberty City. We encourage you to get up-close and personal with this fine city. Appearances can be deceptive from a distance.

Hailing a taxi can be a fine art and sometimes you have to play dirty, especially at rush hour. However, Liberty City's famous yellow cabs remain one of the quickest and easiest ways to get to your destination on time. Taxis will pull over at the sound of a whistle and then you can relax to the radio as the driver weaves through traffic with a mobile phone in one hand and a cigarette in the other.

When that one lunchtime pint turns into twelve or your cab fare home ends up in the g-string of a lap dancer, call your cousin Roman and he will send out a car to pick you up. That is what family is for.

Liberty City has one of the most efficient subway systems in the world. Trains run 24/7, connect you to all four boroughs and you are never far from a station stop. Just stand clear of the closing doors, avoid eye and body contact and try not to think too much about why your seat

By Car and Motorcycle

There are a lot of ways to get your hands on a vehicle in Liberty City; you just have to use your initiative. Driving is the best way to get to grips with a metropolis of this size. Liberty City prides itself on the fact that every drivable street has a name so residents can easily find hospitals, restaurants or their favourite clubs.

By Boat and Helicopter

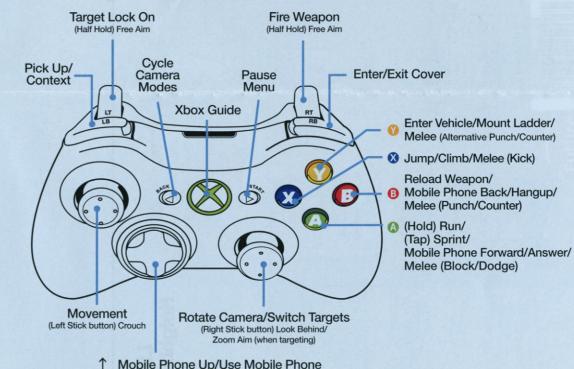

The best views of Liberty City are from the air and water. Avoid the traffic jams by flying through Algonquin's skyscrapers in a helicopter or blazing down the Humboldt River in a speedboat. Helicopters can land on any rooftop and boats are an excellent way to visit some of the smaller islands around the city. Your date will be impressed, we promise.
