Important Health Warning About Playing Video Games

Photosensitive seizures

A very small percentage of people may experience a seizure when exposed to certain visual images, including flashing lights or patterns that may appear in video games. Even people who have no history of seizures or epilepsy may have an undiagnosed condition that can cause these “photosensitive epileptic seizures” while watching video games.

These seizures may have a variety of symptoms, including lightheadedness, altered vision, eye or face twitching, jerking or shaking of arms or legs, disorientation, confusion, or momentary loss of awareness. Seizures may also cause loss of consciousness or convulsions that can lead to injury from falling down or striking nearby objects.

Immediately stop playing and consult a doctor if you experience any of these symptoms. Parents should watch for or ask their children about the above symptoms—children and teenagers are more likely than adults to experience these seizures. The risk of photosensitive epileptic seizures may be reduced by taking the following precautions: Sit farther from the screen; use a smaller screen; play in a well-lit room; do not play when you are drowsy or fatigued.

If you or any of your relatives have a history of seizures or epilepsy, consult a doctor before playing.

MULTIPLAYER

TAKE THE FIGHT ONLINE. TRANSFORMERS: FALL OF CYBERTRON OFFERS THESE GAME MODES:

ESCALATION*

Escalation is a co-op survival game that can be played with up to four players. Together you must survive as many waves of enemies as possible. Can you make it to wave 15?

* Unlike the other multiplayer games, Escalation is accessed from the main menu only.

TEAM DEATHMATCH

A classic team-based game. The team with the most kills wins.

CONQUEST

Teams must capture the nodes located throughout the map in order to score points. The team that reaches the score limit or has the most points when the time limit is reached is declared the winner.

CAPTURE THE FLAG

Teams must capture the enemy's flag while defending their own flag. Vehicle form is off-limits for capturing and carrying flags. Teamwork is the key to winning the match. The first team to capture 3 flags wins the match.

HEADHUNTER

When a player dies, their spark falls onto the floor. Score points by picking up the spark and returning it to a node. The team with the most sparks at the end of the time limit wins.

CHARACTER CUSTOMIZATION

THE NEW CHARACTER CUSTOMIZER ALLOWS YOU TO BUILD YOUR OWN AUTOBOT OR DECEPTICON, AS WELL AS DEFINE THE WEAPONS AND ABILITIES YOUR CHARACTER HAS.

CUSTOMIZATION OPTIONS

ARMOR: The armor section allows you to change to multiple categories of parts such as the chest, arms and legs. The chest piece will also determine the vehicle form you turn into. If you prefer, you can also choose from the many prefabricated characters via the "Armor Set" option.

LOADOUTS: The loadouts section allows you to customize your primary and secondary weapons, as well as weapon upgrades and abilities.

PERSONALITY: The personality section allows you to change your character's colors, voice, and name. These options are influenced by the faction you choose.

CLASSES

THERE ARE FOUR CLASSES TO CHOOSE FROM:

INFILTRATOR: The Infiltrators are the smallest and fastest class. They rely on hit-and-run tactics to take on much larger foes due to their lighter armor. As the only class with the cloak ability, they are masters of stealth.

DESTROYER: The Destroyer is the most well-rounded class. Their heavier armor and less-nimble truck forms can take a beating while dishing out support for their teammates and firepower against their enemies. Their special ability is a Diffraction Barrier which makes them formidable on the battlefield.

TITAN: Built for destruction, Titans are deadly at almost any range. Heavy tank cannons blast opponents from afar while specialized weapons chew through armor up close. They aren't the quickest on the battlefield, but Titans don't need to run from a fight.

SCIENTIST: While their large size makes them a hefty target, the airborne maneuverability of their vehicle form allows them to pick and choose their fights better than any other class. Scientists specialize in the ability to heal others from their wounds in battle.
